HODGKINS WISHES BRITT AND NELSON WITTE NOW KNOWS TO RETIRE TO FIGHT THE CONDITIONS FOR PEACE

Report is That Change in Will Battle 50 Rounds at Department is to Come Colma, September 9,
Soon. for Big Purse.

St. Clair Hodgkins says he has not resigned as Chief of Police. Mayor Mott says he has not resigned. City Engineer Turner says he has not resigned. City Attorney McElroy says he knows nothing of it if the Chief has resigned. Nevertheless there is a settled conviction in political circles that Hodgkins will retire soon. His tenure is causing increased tension, and a change is regarded imminent, though Commissioner Turner says he will not vote to remove him unless presented with clear proof of wrongdoing. He is not in harmony with Mayor Mott's belief that the force is disorganized and not properly handled. Commissioner McElroy will not vote to remove Hodgkins if Petersen is to be made Chief. Turner says he has made no agreement or combination as to Hodgkins' successor. The Mayor wants to remove Hodgkins and make Petersen Chief. Notwithstanding this lack of agreement, the undernote in the talk of the Commissioners points to Hodgkins' retirement—probably by resignation. The sticking point seems to be whether Hodgkins shall retire from the force altogether, or from his old position of detective. While he has not written out his resignation, he has said to both Mayor Mott and City Engineer Turner that he wished to resign, and be made a detective. This is not agreeable to the Mayor, who objects to Hodgkins as a detective on the same grounds that he opposes him for Chief. Apparently Hodgkins' resignation as Chief is conditioned on his being made detective, though neither he nor any of the Commissioners will so state in direct terms. "Chief Hodgkins told me some time ago that he wished to resign and go on the force as a detective, but no change has been decided on," said Mr. Turner. "The Chief has not resigned, so far as I know, and I have made no agreement to vote for his successor. I haven't got to that yet. There may be a change at any time—it might come in a day—but I will not vote to remove Hodgkins till some at least of the charges made against him are proved to be true. I know he is willing to resign, but not under fire, and I do not think it would be right to put him out without proof of wrongdoing. I don't believe in taking away a man's bread and butter for no sufficient cause. The Chief has many enemies, but it is natural that a man in his position should make enemies. He has been on the force nearly all his life, and I don't think his unpopularity should lead us to do him an injustice." Mr. Turner's talk indicated weariness of the whole business, and an anxiety to be rid of the strain of the situation. He admitted a desire for an adjustment which would relieve him of the responsibility that has been passed up to him, but he intimated that he would not consent to putting Hodgkins out unconditionally unless the Chief chose to settle the matter by resigning.

TAGGART DIVORCE HEARING

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 10.—At the opening of the Taggart divorce case hearing today, objection was made by the defense to the introduction of deposition of Dr. C. J. Bonfield of Cincinnati. Mrs. Taggart's attorney was kept informed by their client and they were ready with the objection that Bonfield had been present in the court-room during the taking of testimony, though the plaintiff's witnesses were supposed to be excluded. It seemed that the physician out of curiosity had stopped over for a day on his way to the lakes. As Mrs. Taggart was Bonfield's private patient in the hospital, he is the only witness who can fully state the cause of her presence there and the exclusion of his deposition if effected, will eliminate an important branch of Taggart's case.

THIS AGED MAN MAY NOW LOVE IN PEACE

BERKELEY, August 10.—Cupid has pulled the strings so that William M. Betts, the aged and wealthy manufacturer of Berkeley, who married his housekeeper a few weeks ago, will not be obliged to spend the last days of his honeymoon in court. Mrs. A. H. McDonald, daughter of Mr. Betts, strenuously opposed the marriage of her father, and with her husband, took action in court to have Mr. Betts declared incompetent. This opposition has now been withdrawn, according to statements made by Attorney Edgar, who represents Mr. and Mrs. Betts. When Mr. Betts took out a marriage license it was stated that his age was 78, and the age of his bride 47. She was Mrs. Forsythe, who had nursed Mr. Betts' wife during her fatal illness. Mrs. Betts died during the month of May. The bride of the aged man was his housekeeper, and as their acquaintance was of such short duration that the daughter, Mrs. McDonald, believed that her father was making a mistake in marrying her, especially when such a short time had elapsed since the death of Mrs. Betts. Despite the opposition of Mrs. McDonald, the marriage ceremony was performed in the home of Percy Betts, a son of the old man, who had no objection to the marriage, such as induced his sister to file suit in court. Betts and his wife went on their honeymoon, but before leaving they retained Attorney Robert Edgar to look after their interests in court. Attorney Edgar stated today that Attorney Woolner, who represents Mrs. McDonald, had promised that the case would be dismissed when it was called in court in Oakland tomorrow. It was assured this morning by Edgar that no guardian will be appointed for Mr. Betts. He manages his extensive business interests in San Francisco personally, and is perfectly able to take care of himself. "I talked the matter over with the attorney who represents Mrs. McDonald, and he promised the suit would not come to an issue in court," said Attorney Edgar.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, August 10.—James Edward Britt, champion white lightweight pugilist of the world, and "Battling" Nelson were matched this morning for a fifty-round contest under the auspices of the Golden State Athletic Club at Colma, the battle to take place in the afternoon of September 9th. The men have agreed to fight for a purse of $25,000, to which will be added $10,000 for the picture concession, and a $10,000 side bet. Jimmy Britt, who is at present in the vicinity of Lake Tahoe, has telegraphed that these conditions are acceptable to him, and as they suit "Battling" Nelson, articles will be signed as soon as drawn and presented to the respective fighters. Both lightweights, through representatives, have posted a $2,500 forfeit binding the match, and $2,500 forfeit that the money for the $10,000 side bet will be posted before the fight. The money is in the hands of Harry Corbett. The fact that the battle will take place on September 9, Admission Day, is expected to draw a record-breaking house to the ring. The Golden State Athletic Club is under the management of James Corbett.

JAPAN IS ANXIOUS FOR PEACE RUSSIA IN FEAR OF CLAIM

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 10.—The Associated Press is able to announce that the meeting today was such as to strengthen the hope of a favorable issue of the conference. Baron Komura was exceedingly earnest in his statement that Japan was anxious for and desirous of a binding peace and in advance of the actual delivery of the conditions he assured M. Witte and Baron Rosen that his country's terms were moderate and he hoped such as could be accepted on a basis of negotiation. M. Witte replied to Baron Komura at considerable length with the greatest earnestness, expressing the hope that a lasting peace could be arranged. The frank and evidently sincere expression of the chief plenipotentiaries made a deep impression on both sides. Baron Rosen and Mr. Takahira only spoke briefly.

SAYS STREETS ARE GOOD CROP REPORT IS ISSUED

WASHINGTON, August 10.—The Department of Agriculture today issued the following crop report: "The condition of corn on August 1st was 89.0 as compared with 87.3 last month, 87.5 on August 1, 1904; 78.7 at the corresponding date of 1903 and a ten year average of 85.4. Preliminary returns indicate a winter wheat crop of about 424,000,000 bushels, 254,600,000 (cents) or an average of 14.2 bushels 8.6 cents per acre as compared with 12.4 bushels (7.4 cents) per acre last year, as finally estimated. The average condition of spring wheat on August 1st was 88.2 as compared with 91 last month, 87.5 on August 1, 1904; 77.1 at the corresponding date in 1903 and a ten-year average of 83.3. The average condition for oat crop for August was 89.1 as compared with 82.1 last month. The average condition of barley on August 1st was 83.5. "I am surprised at the ignorance of our fellow townsmen," said Mayor Mott this morning, while reading a "list" about bad streets, "relative to the improvements of our streets. There is not a city on the Pacific Coast with as good streets as we have in the main. There are more than 250 miles of streets which would be called perfect in any city of the world. Seattle, Los Angeles, Sacramento and San Jose have nothing to compare with our streets. There are a few streets, principally in the old part of the town, which are in wretched condition, but this, I think, will be remedied. In a year I think that Oakland can advertise to all the world that she has the very best streets of any city on the Pacific Coast. I believe those who complain of the streets should ride over all of the city just once."

BLOOD FLOWS ON THE STREETS OF WARSAW

WARSAW, August 10.—The police were busy this afternoon filling the jails with Jewish Socialists. They captured 250 armed with revolvers and daggers in a synagogue on Nowolipie street. Fifteen others were arrested by a patrol on Francis Sekauska street, after an exchange of shots. A bomb was discovered in the streets this morning and three policemen were shot. There are also disturbances in the surrounding districts. Gangs of revolutionists armed with revolvers and bombs attacked the government treasurers in three districts of Opatow, Lubartow and Wengrow, resulting in stiff fighting with the police, several of whom were wounded. A pogrom in Byele destroyed the place of Count Kransansk at Tykocin near Byele.

 The following official statement was made by Mr. Korostovetz on behalf of the Russian plenipotentiaries: "In the meeting of August 10, the question of full powers had been regulated, so that there will be no more difficulty on that subject. After this the Japanese plenipotentiaries handed to the Russian plenipotentiaries the conditions of peace in writing. It has been decided that the Russian plenipotentiaries will study the question and will, as soon as possible, give their answer in writing. In the meantime the meeting of the conference has been adjourned." *****

PRESIDENT MAKES SPEECH TO COAL MINERS

Great Reception is Given Roosevelt by Union Men—Mitchell's Remarks.

OYSTER BAY, August 10.—President Roosevelt started at 8 o'clock this morning for Wilkesbarre, Pa., where later this afternoon he will deliver an address to the anthracite coal miners and to the members of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union. Tomorrow he will deliver an address before the Chautauqua Assembly at Chautauqua, N. Y. The President's son, Kermit, his nephew, Hall Roosevelt, and his cousin, Philip Roosevelt, accompanied the President on his trip. Other members of the party, including his acting secretary, MANY VISITORS. WILKESBARRE, Pa., August 10.—From every section of the anthracite region miners and temperance workers came here today and before daylight crowds with lunch boxes and umbrellas had camped out in advantageous spots to await the arrival of President Roosevelt. Mayor Kirkendall said today that he expects there will be 250,000 visitors in this city. All the mines are closed, and many of the mills and stores have suspended business. The Catholic Total Abstinence Union delegates transacted but little business this forenoon and at noon the 10,000 uniformed cadets and soldiers of the two regiments of the order paraded. This parade ended in time for the regiments to line up the streets and keep back the great crowds.

AT EASTON. EASTON, Pa., August 10.—The President's train arrived here at 11:45, the moment President Roosevelt appeared on the rear platform, a deafening shout went up. The ovation lasted for some time and the cheering lasted for five minutes. A commanding motion from the President brought immediate silence and he proceeded to occupy the remaining few moments with an address that was listened to with marked attention. SPEAKS ON TRAIN. This was the President's first visit to this section of the Lehigh Valley. Mr. Roosevelt was still talking when the train pulled out and when his voice could no longer be heard, the band struck up and the crowd waved a parting salute. The Presidential train also stopped at Phillipsburg. The stop was only for three minutes, but in that brief interval there was a mad rush to get near enough to the train to get a glimpse of Mr. Roosevelt and hear his voice. All stores and factories closed down at 11 o'clock. The President was all smiles and he seemed to deeply appreciate the reception. The President spoke briefly. United (Continued on Page 2.)

Mikado Wants Indemnity of One Billion Dollars

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 10.—Eijiro Takaugi, professor of English at the Imperial University at Tokio, in an interview after a lengthy conference with Mr. Sato, who has been the spokesman for the Japanese peace commission, said that Japan's terms in his opinion would include the immediate evacuation of Manchuria, the cession of the island of Sakhalin and an indemnity of $1,000,000,000. Vladivostok would also be demanded. The indemnity, Mr. Takaugi said, might be reduced if peace can be brought about in no other way. Mr. Takaugi said: "THE PORTSMOUTH CONFERENCE WILL END IN A TREATY OF PEACE."

WITTE'S VIEWS ARE MODIFIED

ST. PETERSBURG, August 10.—Dispatches received here from Portsmouth, N. H., indicate that Mr. Pokiloff's arrival has resulted in an important modification in Mr. Witte's views. Mr. Witte is now willing to make terms with the Japanese conditions on the surrender of the Chinese Eastern Railway between Harbin and Port Arthur and to satisfy the financial demands of Japan if reasonable, provided Russia is permitted to retain Sakhalin. These terms have been communicated to Peterhof and are satisfactory to the Emperor.

The official credentials were then exchanged. As each side previously had an opportunity to examine them it was largely a matter of form. After this followed a general discussion, in which Baron Komura and M. Witte spoke freely. The best of spirit was manifested, and Mr. Takahira and Baron Rosen participated, French and English being used. During the course of the exchange it was agreed that Baron Komura should present the Japanese terms, and M. Witte promised to give a reply at the earliest possible moment.

IN WRITING. In order to avoid misunderstandings it was arranged that the reply and all formal communications should be made in writing. This understanding was reached just before the session closed, and Baron Komura handed the document to M. Witte, who thrust it into his pocket without opening it. While the Japanese went to luncheon, M. Witte and Baron Rosen repaired to their rooms, where they examined the document on which so much depended. A desire for expedition was expressed on both sides. While it is hardly possible that the Russian reply can be given at this afternoon's session, the plenipotentiaries will remain at the navy yard, the Japanese waiting the pleasure of their adversaries.

Immediately after the adjournment of the meeting M. Witte set his secretaries to work to put into cipher the conditions of peace presented by Baron Komura, which are now being cabled to St. Petersburg and will be immediately transmitted to the Emperor. M. Witte personally put into cipher his own comment upon the character of the conditions and what action had best be taken. While engaged in this (Continued on Page 2.)

REMAINS OF ARCHBISHOP REST IN STATE

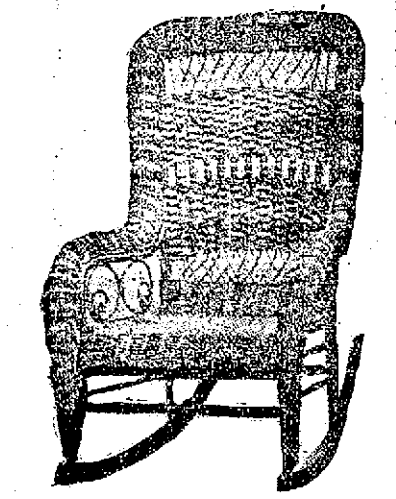

Face of the Deceased is Hidden From View—Plans For Elaborate Funeral.

NEW ORLEANS, August 10.—Although the casket is completely closed, allowing no exposure of the face, many people today visited the ancient St. Louis Cathedral, where the body of Archbishop Chappelle is lying in state, and the crypt in which it will be laid to rest on Saturday.

MAKE PLANS TO BEAUTIFY

Last night there was held in the Council chamber in response to an invitation which had been sent out by Mayor Frank K. Mott, C. J. Heesman and N. H. Chamberlain, an informal meeting of those who are interested in the California Real Association. The invitation declares that the State Association has for its purposes the writing of all commercial, agricultural and social interests in the State of California in a scheme for better road building and civic improvements that shall have the co-operation of the officials and taxpayers of the State; to further interest all the people in beautifying the public highways and all property abutting on the same, including all cities, towns and villages.

JAPANESE PRESENT TERMS TO RUSSIA

Important task he retired to one of the rooms set apart for the Russian suite.

Only M. Korostovetz of the Russian mission returned from the navy yard to the Wentworth for the purpose of communicating to the press about this morning's meeting. None of the Japanese secretaries or plenipotentiaries have returned yet.

NOT A HINT. The Japanese envoys gave not the slightest hint of what was to be expected, with all the secrecy observed by Oyama in planning a forward movement against the Russian commander-in-chief in Manchuria, Baron Komura and his suite have prepared their diplomatic campaign here.

Mr. Witte and his colleagues are in the dark. They can only wait and watch for the decisive moment to arrive. It is known, however, that they were strongly inclined to believe that, for some reason, their adversaries would not reveal their position today.

JAPAN'S MAXIMUM. Japan will present her maximum, but she also has her irreducible minimum, and in the first real passage at arms, it will be the aim of the Russian negotiators to force their adversaries to their last line of defense.

THE TRIP. Prince Kudachoff having been added to their number as Mr. Witte desired to have him for some special work, Mr. Witte expressed the hope that the Japanese would not object to this. When Mr. Witte appeared on the veranda of the Russian headquarters all those present took off their hats, and he smilingly went around shaking hands with those whom he knew.

WITTE'S REPLY. That Mr. Witte will decline to accept the conditions as a whole may be regarded as a foregone conclusion, and in his reply he is expected to point out clearly the points he can and what points he cannot accept.

ANOTHER GORDIAN KNOT. Euclid was laying down the maxim that two parallel lines can never meet. "That doesn't matter," snarled the Russian magnate, "you can merge 'em."

TO RUSSIA

EVERYTHING QUIET. Under the directions of President Roosevelt, everything is done to see that the deliberations are not disturbed and the negotiations take place "exclusively" between the belligerents.

THEIR POSITIONS. The plenipotentiaries sat on opposite sides of a long table.

HOTEL GUESTS. The hotel guests, as has already become a custom, thronged the verandas even before there was a possibility that the foreigners would appear.

MUCH DISCUSSION. Among the Russian and Japanese delegates at the Wentworth, there is a great deal of discussion about the acquiescence of M. Witte in the suggestion of Baron Komura to exclude delegates from the conference.

CROWDS AT HOTEL. He refused to let his leave his hands, and three times declined the offer of a porter to put the precious luggage in the automobile.

ENTITLED TO SIGN. In international negotiations, the principal plenipotentiaries are usually entitled to sign whatever treaty or convention is concluded, but delegates frequently participate in general discussion and in some cases at the conclusion of the conference are empowered to sign the treaty or convention.

MAN OF WEALTH. This applies just as much to the man of great wealth as to the man of small means; to the capitalist as to the wage-worker.

THE DRUNKARD. For the drunkard, for the man who loses his job because he cannot control or will not control his desire for liquor and for vicious pleasures, we have a feeling of anger and contempt mixed with pity.

GUILTY MEN ARE FINED $5

E. G. Northrup and H. G. Parsons, business men of San Jose, who were convicted of disturbing the peace of Mrs. Ida J. Smith, secretary of the Alameda Mining and Investment Syndicate, at her home in this city, were fined $5 this morning by Judge Smith with the alternative of spending two and one-half days in prison.

Mrs. Smith alleged that the men seriously disturbed her peace by taken possession of her home. One of the rooms was used as an office of the syndicate. This room Judge Smith held the two defendants had a right to enter but held that they did not have the right to go to other parts of the house.

Parsons and Northrup stated that the reason they wished to enter the house was to look through the books of the corporation. Rev. J. J. Smith, promoter of the company, is under sentence of a year for his connection with the company which is alleged to be of the wild cat order.

WOMAN, AGED 60, MISSING

Wanders About City's Streets Searching for Home.

Mrs. Dan Stewart, a woman 60 years of age, who left San Francisco two days ago for her grandson's home in this city, has been wandering around the city for that space of time, apparently unable to locate the proper home.

Her disappearance was reported to the police by the grandson, R. P. Stewart, who states that he had provided a home for her at his own residence, 1130 Eighth street.

A woman answering the description of the missing woman was seen this morning wandering around the vicinity of Fourteenth and Castro streets in a demented condition.

It is thought that the aged woman has found shelter in the De Fremery Park for the last two nights.

REPORTS THEFT.

SAN JOSE, August 10.—Eighty canary birds were stolen from an aviary at the residence of former State Senator Lewis Quesal at Tenth and San Antonio streets last night. Quesal is a great student of bird life and had one of the finest collections of canaries in the State. This morning when he went out to feed the birds, as is his custom before going to his law office, less than twenty birds were in the cage. The door of the aviary had been left unlocked. In the number were some excellent singers. The birds have been notified and an effort will be made to find the birds. It is believed that the thief will take the birds to some nearby city and dispose of them.

REPORTS THEFT.

J. Q. Horton, residing at 541 Nineteenth street, reported to the police this morning that $6 worth of bits and several other valuable implements he was using on a house at the corner of Third and Telegraph avenues were stolen last night.

The West Berkeley Bank is to begin work on its new building and to this end has let a contract to the Contra Costa Construction Company for the drain and the work of foundation and vault for a 2-story building at University and Sixth Avenue. The work to cost $1,850.

D. P. Brown has given R. W. Robie a contract to build him a house on the tract in Berkeley to cost $400. Frank C. Jackson has given Maggie Price a chattel mortgage on his furniture at 2058 Elmwood avenue in Alameda to secure a loan of $200.

A 2-story house is to be built by Mrs. M. Helms on College Avenue in the Liberty tract, Berkeley, and she has given the contract to Nelson & Boldt. The building to cost $3,750.

ALBION LODGE.

Albion Lodge held a pleasant meeting last Tuesday night. During the session Brothers J. Barlow was presented with his commission of Grand District Deputy for Alameda county to succeed Brother Wilson.

On Tuesday, August 29th, Brother Butcher of Pickwick Lodge will address Albion Lodge on his experiences in Russia. worthy President Smith has heard this account and says it is excellent. It is also his wish that all members that possibly can attend be there. A very pleasant time is assured.

Under good and welfare songs, H. O. Watson, press committee Albion Lodge, Sons of St. George.

LAUNDRY UNION IN SESSION

EXECUTIVE BOARD CONSIDERS
SEVERAL MATTERS—CARPEN-
TERS TO PICNIC

A meeting of the executive board of the Oakland Laundry Workers' Union, Local 55, took place last night. A communication was received from the San Francisco branch, No. 26 asking information about the financial condition of the striking laundry men and women in Los Angeles.

A V O'Neill secretary pro tem of the local, was instructed to answer the letter, stating that the Los Angeles people are in great need of help and asking that the San Franciscans contribute liberally.

At its last meeting the union here sent $25 to the strikers and expects to do so well next time with its enormous membership the local in the city will be able to send enough to assist the Los Angeles people greatly.

In the letter from San Francisco, attention was called to the condition in Palo Alto where it is feared that many unionists will be persuaded to enter a laundry which has been changed to an "open shop" concern. The members of 26 also ask for assistance in building up the French laundry union in their city, as it is threatened with dissolution on account of the fewness of its members.

Eight applications for membership were considered last night by the executive committee. It was announced that the final meeting of the committee in charge of the picnic given monthly by the union would be held next Saturday evening. Then all reports will be in and an accurate accounting can be made.

The question of whether or not to accept the invitation of the Building Trades Council to parade on Labor Day will be considered at the next session of the union next Monday evening.

The local is affiliated with the Central Labor Council between which and the Building Trades there is no connection and sometimes a little friction. The Central Council is planning an outing in Sausal Park that day.

FOR INJURED MAN.

All the Oakland men are selling tickets to the general public to a benefit performance at Idora Park on August 17. John W. Smith the superintendent whose foot was cut off by a car two weeks ago, is to be the recipient of the money thus collected after the expense is paid. The park management will charge $100 for the use of the grounds the theater and the laughing gallery.

Tickets to the three cost 25 cents. Many of the carmen have as many as 400 tickets to sell and an enormous profit is expected.

TINNERS MEET.

There was a session of the Sheet Metal Workers' Union last night at the headquarters of the Building Trades' Council. It was decided to parade on Labor Day with the other unions of the council and to go to the joint picnic at Shell Mound Park. The committee arranging the matter conferred with the parade for the union consists of Lawrence Deluchi, John Short and Felix Clausius.

Harry Spearman, who has a place of business on Seventh street, was declared "fair" last night by the local. A short time ago he did a non-union job putting on the roof of the Melrose schoolhouse and was declared unfair, but he has since signed the agreement.

J. Bishop was initiated into the union last night. An application for membership was received from G. Nelson and accepted.

CARPENTERS TO PICNIC.

The District Council of Carpenters of Alameda county will hold picnic at Idora Park on Labor Day, September 4th.

Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, will be the orator of the day and will speak in the theater at 2 o'clock.

The day will be spent in games and dancing the most particular features being a big barbecue and a tug-of-war between the carpenters and carpenters for a purse of $200.

The admission to the park will be twenty-five cents for adults, and fifteen cents for children.

WOMAN, MYSTERY AND MONEY

SAN FRANCISCO August 10.—A romance beginning on the seas and ending in Boston Mass came to light yesterday in the County Clerk's office when the affidavit of Mrs. Sarah R. Sallie of East Sausalito, N. Y. was filed.

The woman alleges that she is the widow of Robert J. Holden, who died on the schooner Vine in December 1899, when she left him to go to Boston. In 1902 she received a letter from him saying that he was in a hospital in Washington State and two days thereafter a telegram from the shipper of the Vine saying that he had died at sea. The estate was duly executed and a balance of $149.58 was placed in the Hawaiian Bank.

No money of the money is made in the affidavit which also alleges that the former Mrs. Holden is now the wife of Charles E. Holden, a carpenter and freight train maker, who lives at 1000 Broadway, San Francisco.

The Union Pacific motor car which recently returned from Portland will go into service as soon as minor repairs have been completed on the Kearney division of the Callaway branch sixty-five miles long making two trips daily.

COLORED COOKS ARE DISPLACED

OMAHA, Neb., August 10.—Colored cooks have been displaced by white men on all the dining cars on the Union Pacific. Criticisms have been made that while the colored man's cooking might be of a superior quality, he was not cleanly and painstaking as the white man in his traveling kitchen.

Other roads which have at times adopted white cooks say they have been found satisfactory. The matter is partly an experiment with the Union Pacific.

A deputation of fifty colored waiters, which waited on the dining-car department today, were informed there was no present intention of displacing the colored waiters with whites.

CONTRACT FOR THE WESTERN PACIFIC

KANSAS CITY August 10.—It is reported among railroad men and contractors here that the William Kennel Construction Company of Kansas City has secured the contract for building the Western Pacific Railway. The road is to be built by the Gould interests from Salt Lake City to San Francisco at a cost of $11,000,000. The contract is the largest single contract for railroad work ever made in the United States.

Mr. Kennel is now in Kansas City. N. Lee, who is interested in the construction is in New York City, where the contract was let.

To the House-keepers of Oakland

We take pleasure in announcing to you that we are now ready to do your grocery business. Everyone must eat. Consequently the table is the housekeeper's chiefest consideration. To make your shopping a pleasure we have just completed the finest and most modernly equipped grocery store in the West. Special and expensive preparation has been made for the cleanly storage and exhibition of our pure food, and no labor or expense has been spared in collecting the purest and the best food products for your table. And further, we wish it understood that we are high in quality, not high in price, because—

- We own our own building.
- We buy in car load lots.
- We have every modern convenience and facility for handling your trade.
- We have special and exclusive arrangements with leading manufacturers to handle their purest and finest products.
- We are contented with a small profit.
- We will sell to you once and sell to you again because your satisfaction is our greatest consideration.

In addition to our grocery and delicatessen departments we have added a household utensil department, complete in every detail and satisfactory in every price.

Our tea department is in charge of an expert tea and coffee blender, who will take special pleasure in catering to your taste. It is our intention to make special prices on all standard grade goods and we know that you will profit by selecting this, as your regular shopping place.

Ladies will find an ideal store, with the convenience of a ladies' reception room and a telephone, at their disposal.

Ladies shopping in carriages will find the location an ideal one.

Our delivery is rapid, reliable and accommodating. We will deliver anything, any where, at any time.

We respectfully solicit your consideration and desire better than to have you inspect Oakland's Newest, and most up-to-date Grocery Store.

ROOSEVELT IN A CRAFTING IN THE NEW ROLE DAYS OF OLD

PRESIDENT MAY GO DOWN IN A SUBMARINE BOAT. 1776.

NEW YORK, August 10.—The officers about the Brooklyn navy yard are greatly interested just at present in rather unusual orders having been received by Lieutenant Charles Nelson, in command of the submarine boat Plunger. The orders came from the Secretary of the Navy and read: "You are to proceed as soon as possible to Oyster Bay and report to the President."

The general impression is that Mr. Roosevelt would like very much to take a dip in the submarine if he were not President, and wants to see anyway what this crack boat can do. Three years ago he went to Annapolis fully expecting to go down in the Holland, but was persuaded not to do so by certain members of the Cabinet who had accompanied him. On this particular occasion the President is reported to have turned on his heel rather sharply and remarked that some day he would have a chance.

It will be five days before the Plunger will be in trim to make the run to Oyster Bay. Three torpedoes are ready to be placed on the craft and a sample of target practice with these will be given. Owing to the narrow channel and shallow water it is out of the question to drive in Oyster Bay. Instead the plunger will be made outside in the Sound.

The Plunger is considered the finest type of our submarine boats.

KILLED BY A RATTLESNAKE

SAN BERNARDINO August 10.—Cecil Sharpless the 10-year-old son of C. V. Sharpless died last evening from the effect of a rattlesnake bite. The child was playing on the Glen Helen ranch with his little sister this morning when he was struck. The boy was taken to the ranch house where his arm was bound and the wound slit while a team was being hitched. As the party started for a physician's office here the horses ran away and the boy's foot was caught between the wheel and the bed of the wagon bruising it badly and tearing all of the skin from one side.

AGED RAILROAD MAN DIES.

SCRANTON Pa. August 10.—Wm. R. Storris one of the oldest railroad company officials in the United States is dead here, aged 81 years.

JOURNALISM IN ENGLAND

HENRY WATTERSON COMPARES IT WITH THE AMERICAN TYPE.

Journalism may be philosophy, but it is not statesmanship. It is the current chronicle among other things, of statesmanship, real or spurious. It may be narrative or it may be doctrinal. In England it aspires to be both. With us less so. But if it be enlightened if it be honest, if it seek the good of the many, it cannot blindly follow the politicians, and in England and in America it is less and less doing so.

There is a very marked difference in the make-up of the London newspapers and, let us say, the New York newspapers. None of the great dailies of London use display type as it is used in America. They affect book-work in their typography as well as their composition.

Another point of difference much to the credit of London is against New York is the reduction of the day's news into some proportion, and the abridgment of each detail within its proper quantum. There is less "featuring," no needless superfluity. London compresses into a paragraph what New York would amplify into a column. But it does this at the cost of a vast amount of the immaterial. When one has read any one of the five leading London dailies he is tolerably sure of being in possession of the history of yesterday.

The cleanliness of the London newspapers is delightful. Much of their interest and value is found in their court reports, wherein the story is set down with great particularity, without surplusage. There are no exaggerations in the text and no headlining to distort the text.

In London as in America, the leading article is beginning to play second fiddle. Whether this is the decline of strong writing or whether it implies that the public has found out the thunderer and where the thunder comes from, it would be hard to say. There is no reason why good editorial writing should not exercise the charm it once did, if not the power.

But good editorial writing, like good butter, must be genuine and fresh. Leading articles kept in cold storage and served, like chickens in a restaurant, on demand, deceive no one who knows the difference between hot chops and cold potatoes. The editorial should be the rationale of the day's doing. It should expound the news, giving precedence to the most important. The reader should instinctively turn to it after he has perused the despatches. Long or short, it should be sincere. While there is nothing more meretricious and grotesque than a bit of wood with a nub of lead at one end and a fool at the other—and yet

WILL REBUILD BURNED CHURCH

NEW YORK August 10.—A new $500,000 church edifice, almost an exact duplicate of the fine St. Thomas Episcopal Church which burned Tuesday will be built immediately on the old site.

HAD SEEN GOLD IN HIS DREAMS

FRESNO, August 10.—Pedestrians late last night witnessed the unusual sight of a man clad only in a night shirt running at top speed through the streets with a half dozen blue coated policemen in hot pursuit. The sprinter was Frank Avila, a brother of Henry Avila, who is employed in the Southern Pacific general offices at San Francisco.

Young Avila came here a week ago from Mexico where he has been engaged in prospecting for gold. He stopped at the home of his sister, who is the wife of John A. Neu, a prominent business man. The Neu's noticed that Avila acted queerly and were preparing to communicate with his brother when the night exploit occurred. When captured Avila explained that he had seen gold in a dream and had slipped out of the back door and into the street to locate the mine.

MONEY MARKET CONTINUES TO BE STRONG

High Prices for Crops are Promised--Talk of Peace Helps the Market.

NEW YORK, August 10.—The light floating supply of stock continues the dominant feature of the financial situation. Professional traders have during the week made a number of concerted demonstrations against the market, but have met indifferent success; and indications are not wanting of further progress towards a period of inflation in stock exchange securities out of all proportion to immediate or prospective returns on investments. There have been, it is true, since the beginning of the year, important and numerous advances in dividend rates; but with prices 20@25 points higher than a year ago these increased distributions may be regarded, to a very liberal degree, at least, as already largely discounted by the higher quotations now ruling. It is significant that quotations today are well up to the highest average since the great revival which accompanied the election of McKinley and the defeat of flat money in 1896. In June, 1896, the average quotation of twelve leading industrials was 38. Today the average quotation of the same stocks is about 8, which is the highest ever reached, notwithstanding the great upward movements of 1899, 1901 and 1902. The nearest approaches to the present average price of these industrials were 77 in September, 1899, 75 in June, 1901, and 78 in December, 1904. And prices of prominent railway stocks make an even more striking display, the average of twenty representative stocks in June, 1896, being 42, while today it is above 136—an average that has been but once exceeded, namely, by that of 129 during the memorable times in the autumn of 1902, and from which there was a gradual recession to about 88 during the reactionary year of 1903. The fact should not be overlooked, therefore, that as far as the price gauge is concerned the market is today at the highest point for many years. It has not, however, reached this eminence as a result of wild, senseless speculation, but has crept gradually upward, reflecting general prosperity and discounting future prosperity. As already noted, standard investment stocks are becoming so closely held they are practically out of the market as speculative securities, and this in turn is encouraging trading in the new class of securities in which industrialists figure prominently. The high prices naturally invite caution in making purchases and suggest the wisdom of profit-taking on the part of many of the old investors and the advisability of quick turns during the irregular movements promised for the next few weeks.

MONEY SITUATION

Aside from high prices and the possibility of the money situation becoming so active as to constitute an adverse factor, the immediate situation, both from a financial and trade and industrial and agricultural standpoint, remains distinctly favorable. Railroad earnings are fully maintaining their recent records, and bank clearings, not alone at New York, but throughout the country, are making new records. In the first week of July, for example, the total showing a gain of 25 per cent over July a year ago and of 6 per cent over the largest July total heretofore recorded—that of 1902. Another striking feature is the official report of the New York State Superintendent of Banking, showing for the year ending with June the enormous increase of $35,836,000 in deposits in the savings banks of the State. And our foreign commerce remains distinctly buoyant. As noted in these advices last week, the fiscal year ending with June made new records both as to imports and exports of merchandise; and such a record, especially when made for the month just ended, indicates an active continuance of these favorable conditions. The United States Appraiser at this port, for instance, gives the appraised value of merchandise imported in July at $51,000,000, which is an increase of more than $10,000,000 comparing with the corresponding month of a year ago. This growth in import value—which means a corresponding increase in Government revenues—is a matter of considerable moment at this time, and will become increasingly important should it continue, as it promises to, until Congress meets in November. There is probably no more potent adverse influence for the stock market to combat than tariff agitation. Owing to the new expenditures that followed the Spanish war, the current tariff has not been capable of producing a sufficient revenue to meet the Government's increased expenditures. Early in the current year the deficit promised to be so large that a readjustment of the schedules appeared the only solution; but foreign trade returns have since so generally improved that best information from Washington indicates an intention among the majority party to secure what additional revenue is still needed by means of minor modifications of the tariff and a more rigid economy in Government disbursements.

GREAT CORN CROP

Everybody in business is now waiting for the great corn crop to pass the danger point, which, barring widespread and increasingly improbable disaster, it will do in the next two or three weeks. Crop reports during the week have taken altogether maintained their favorable aspect, though the Government report on cotton, which is this month issued with proper precautions to insure its accuracy, confirms other authorities in the belief that the cotton yield will be considerably below that of last season. Much interest is being taken in the report of the Department of Agriculture on the grain crops, which will appear at noon on Wednesday next. An entire crop is being forward to one of the most prosperous years in railroad history. The earnings of the great trunk roads when the crop is being marketed are expected to present a long series of stimulating influences throughout the autumn and winter. A large crop of corn such as the present promises to be has many ramifications. There is, in the first place, the railroad traffic on the corn itself and the greatly increased traffic on the many products into which this great cereal enters, especially in the great provision industry. The income of the country is assured, the great prosperity throughout the vast corn belt that a bumper harvest at high prices means for the country is assured, the great prosperity throughout the vast corn belt that a bumper harvest at high prices means for the country is assured, the great prosperity throughout the vast corn belt that a bumper harvest at high prices means for the country is assured.

ARRIVAL OF RUSSIANS

The arrival of M. Witte and the circulation of alleged interviews with him, in which he was made to predict failure of the coming peace negotiations, had temporarily quite a depressing influence on the market. There is no doubt, of course, that the representatives of both Russia and Japan will use every means to make the peace negotiations as favorable as possible. The Czar's envoy was unquestionably respectful in some of the statements attributed to him, but his interviews that were duly authorized show his keen perception of the matter may be termed, and using the agency of publicity for his full value. In this he has had a good example in the action of the Mikado's representatives, all serving the double purpose of appealing to the popular taste in their native countries and calculated also, even though the play be fully understood by both parties, to affect the preliminary conditions at the conference. Modern diplomatic methods are full assurance that Russia knows approximately the terms Japan will finally accept; but we may confidently expect from both sides periodical changes of opinion, and the tendency for home consumption. These will probably furnish at New York and the world's financial centers a series of fluctuations in security quotations. The Japanese and Russian envoys are almost absolutely sure to effect a peace settlement before the end of the month. The Japanese are not likely to be so exacting in their terms as to demand peace. Japan can afford to offer reasonable terms than Russia can afford to accede to harsh ones. Japan has achieved glory enough and Russia has been humiliated enough.

HENRY CLEWS.

POORHOUSE TO AFRO-AMERICANS TO MEET CHARITY

PITIFUL PLEA OF ONCE WEALTHY BROKER, NOW PENNILESS.

NEW YORK, August 10.—Wearing patent leather shoes, a slightly frayed frock coat and a high hat which was a bit rusty, J. T. Rapelle, a retired broker, 82 years of age, applied yesterday to the Commissioner of Charities in New Rochelle for commitment to the Alms House. Struck by the unusual air of dignity and refinement, the commissioner asked the aged applicant to tell his story.

"You don't mistake? You don't really mean that you want to go to the poor house?" the commissioner queried.

"Yes, sir, I most emphatically do. I want keep my respect and not wish to be dependent on relatives or friends. As I have paid taxes all my life, I think that now when I have more money, it is the duty of the community to care for me."

Asked how he came to lose his money, Rapelle said he formerly had been at the head of a brokerage house in this city, made a comfortable fortune and retired, for a time, to live at his best hotels, but gradually encroached on his capital and slowly receded to cheaper quarters. The income from his investments was insufficient, even then, and during the past fifteen years his capital slowly dwindled away until yesterday he was penniless.

"When he figured up his assets on an always being in good circumstances, Rapelle said he never dreamed of living in the poor house, but yesterday he was told he would have to move, as he was a week behind in his rent."

Commissioner Schuch said he would commit the man to the Alms House, temporarily, at least.

"May I get my trunk?" Rapelle asked.

He was given permission, and for the first time in the history of the West Chester Alms House it received an inmate who came with a trunk.

Danderine

GREW THIS HAIR AND WE CAN PROVE IT.

Results from its use are QUICK and PERMANENT.

MISS DOROTHY CLARK, 2130 Greenhaw St., CHICAGO.

FRANCES MARIE KNOWLTON, 960 Garfield Boulevard, Chicago, Ill., Age 4 Years.

MISS LUCY MAY, 5034 Forestville Ave., CHICAGO.

LITTLE FRANCES MARIE KNOWLTON

whose photograph appears herewith has a most beautiful head of golden hair, thicker than the crown of glory of most making women. Frances is only four years old, and her hair hangs within 12 inches of the floor. The extraordinary hair strengthening qualities of Danderine have grown for this little girl the most admirable head of hair ever possessed by a child of her age in the world. The other two ladies whose photographs are shown here are certainly delighted with the results they are getting. Neither of them having hair that would reach to their waists before beginning the use of Danderine.

IT IS POSITIVE AND PERMANENT IN ITS RESULTS.

When applied to the scalp, on the old or young, it makes the hair sprout and grow thick, long and beautiful, and there is no waiting around for weeks and months to see results, either. Any drug that will refund the price if it does not accomplish every result we claim. NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle.

PRESIDENT MAY DIVE

SUBMARINE BOAT IS ORDERED TO REPORT TO ROOSEVELT AT OYSTER BAY.

NEW YORK, August 10.—Much interest was caused yesterday at the Brooklyn Navy Yard through orders that have been received by Lieutenant Charles Nelson, in command of the submarine boat Plunger. The orders came from the Secretary of the Navy and read:

"You are to proceed as soon as possible to Oyster Bay and report to the President."

When the orders came the boat was in dry-dock being overhauled. She was at once taken out and is now lying in the waterway that runs through the center of the navy yard. A large force of expert engineers and mechanics is working night and day getting the little craft into tip-top shape. An entire set of new and heavily insulated electric light wires is being put in and the gasoline engine is undergoing a complete revamping. Every bolt and rivet is being subjected to a thorough resoling and the torpedo tube is being frequently tested.

It will be five days before the Plunger will be in condition to make the run to Oyster Bay, Lieutenant Nelson has picked a crew of ten men from the various submarines and every man is being thoroughly drilled at his particular post. Although it is said that the President has several times expressed a desire to go down in a submarine and the officers of the Plunger are extremely anxious to have the executive as their guest in a dip below the water's surface, no intention of such a plan has been given out. The men admit that they expect only to show the President how their craft works. Owing to the narrow channel and shallow water it is a question of the question to dive in Oyster Bay. Instead the plunge will be made outside in the sound.

OLDEST RESIDENT IS DEAD WITHDRAW A CHARGE

HAYWARDS, August 10.—By mutual agreement of the parties in the criminal action against John Silva Tavarres the complaint has been withdrawn. The Portuguese had been accused of battery upon Jackson Pistanto, whom he suspected of throwing rubbish into his yard. Tavarres has been frequently annoyed by the unwelcome attentions of the young boys of his neighborhood. When he found that a number of them were throwing dead cats and similar articles over his fence he became incensed and tried to make an adequate punishment. Running out to the gate, he seized young Pistanto and threw him to the ground. The latter ran home as soon as released and told his father, Alexander Pistanto, who immediately swore out a warrant for Tavarres.

As he was convinced later that the boy he caught was not one of those guilty the man accused agreed to make reparation, and once more there is peace between the two houses.

Other aspiring youths continue to disturb the peace of the Portuguese, however. He found the other morning that refuse had been placed in his water tank by persons unknown. He has consulted the officers of the law and intends to protect his property.

HAYWARDS NOTES.

Preparations are being made by many of the local sports to visit the San Lorenzo track next Sunday and take in the races to be held there. There are to be contests in both running and trotting. A match race for a purse of $500 is a great attraction.

Work is progressing rapidly on the construction of the Haas brothers' new business block. Contractor Uthoff has the walls up and is almost ready to do the roofing. The lower floor will be used for stores, while the family will make their home upstairs.

Miss Maria Ruggs returned home this week after spending several weeks at the Providence Hospital. She submitted to an operation for appendicitis.

CHICAGO MAYOR IS VICTIM OF BURGLAR

CHICAGO, August 10.—Mayor Edward F. Dunne's residence was burglarized last night a few hours after he returned from his visit to the East. The burglars gained an entrance to the house through a window and succeeded in carrying off about $75 worth of valuables. A search for the burglars, but they had slipped away before the Mayor could be aroused.

HAPPY RESULTS

Have Made Many Oakland Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Oakland citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are being made by the representatives of the daily work done in Oakland by Doan's Kidney Pills.

C. T. Warren, house painter, paper hanger, etc., of 2098 Eighth street, Berkeley, says: "Like the majority of men who follow my calling, I have been annoyed for years by back and kidney troubles. I think if the primary cause of backaches in painters is not the fumes of the ingredients they use they certainly aggravate such annoyances when they exist. The painter requires a good, sound back, and when it aches and pains, he is often in misery. Other complications of the stomach exist when I went to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills, and I scarcely expected the remedy would help my back. Much to my surprise and more to my gratification after I had taken two boxes, the backache ceased."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TELL CARDINAL OF CHAPPELLE'S DEATH

WILKESBARRE, Pa., August 10.—Cardinal Gibbons was informed of the death of Archbishop Chappelle when he arrived in this city last night. He said: "The news is a great shock to me. Before leaving Baltimore yesterday morning I received a dispatch from him commanding himself to my prayers, and this was the first knowledge I had that his illness was so serious or that the end was near. I need not say how greatly I am shocked and grieved at the news of his death."

Ben Butler and Yellow Fever.

The Stockton Mail takes too much stock in General Benjamin F. Butler's account of how he kept yellow fever out of New Orleans. Butler unquestionably cleaned up the city and instituted a rigid quarantine, but there is no proof that yellow fever would have visited New Orleans at that particular time if there had been no cleaning up and no quarantine. New Orleans has gone through many a summer dirty and unquarantined without being visited by yellow fever. Besides, it is now agreed by medical experts that yellow fever is not a filth disease, and is not propagated by miasma or other poisonous gases generated by decaying animal or vegetable filth. The consensus of medical opinion is that it is communicated by the sting of a certain kind of mosquito, which inoculates one person with the virus of another. Yellow fever does not originate above the frost line, and hence is not indigenous to Louisiana. It dies out there after each epidemic, and does not appear again till it is imported again from abroad. Furthermore, when it does appear its progress is entirely without reference to sanitary conditions. It is as likely to be virulent in the clean quarters of the city as in the most unsanitary districts. It attacks persons without reference to their habits of life or the surroundings in which they live. It will skip a shanty by a cesspool to grasp with its infection the dwellers in a costly mansion on a clean street. In short, the pestilence must first be introduced from the outside, but after it is once established it spreads in a most erratic way. Persons exposed to personal contact with it for weeks often do not take it while others who have never been within blocks of the infection contract the disease. The mosquito which spreads the fever does not gather the poison from the filth of sewers or rotten garbage heaps, but from individuals. If the mosquito theory be correct, Butler did not banish yellow fever by cleaning up New Orleans, no matter how much the cleansing did for health in other respects. His quarantine may have kept the yellow fever out, but the fact remains that the city has been free from yellow fever three seasons out of four regardless of sanitary conditions. It has ravaged the city when it was comparatively clean and been comparatively harmless, even after introduction, when the city was exceedingly filthy. It is a noteworthy fact, however, that the pestilence has been steadily decreasing in virulence for many years, and is gradually disappearing from ports in the United States. It seems to be dying out also in the West Indies and along the Brazilian coast, where it once perpetually prevailed and was periodically epidemic in terrible form. The proportion of people who now die of yellow fever is insignificant compared to the hordes who succumbed anterior to the present generation.

The Automobile Club of California has done well to put itself on record as denouncing scorching on the public roads in violation of the law. Nevertheless it will require sterner measures than passing resolutions to stop the vicious and dangerous practice. The reckless young blade with more money than regard for the law and more whiskey in his belly than brains in his head is likely to care less about the resolutions of the Automobile Club than he does about the acts of the Legislature. And he is the individual to be dealt with in suppressing the scorching nuisance.

The Bakersfield Echo gives forth a lusty bray of self gratulation because Kern county is shipping mules to old Missouri.

Having distinguished itself at the outset by overruling the Supreme Court of the State in the matter of selecting juries in criminal cases, the Appellate Court for the Southern District of California has again signalized itself by declaring all game laws other than those enacted by the Legislature unconstitutional and void. This wipe out at one stroke all the ordinances enacted by the boards of supervisors of the several counties for the protection of game, and makes the open season the same in San Diego as in Siskiyou—a ridiculous proposition on its face. Apparently the Appellate Court for the Southern District is, like a boy with a new gun, is testing the keenness of its technical knife, taking small notice of how the cutting affects public policy or the body of the general law as expounded by the Supreme Court. Perhaps it desires to set up an independent jurisdiction and establish a new line of precedents to further complicate the legal machinery of the State.

Japanese civilization continues to show American characteristics. It takes to the piano much more readily than to the washboard.

An Alameda paper suggests that the opposition of Oakland property owners to granting a freight railroad franchise along East Fourteenth street comes from persons who "want their palms greased." The suggestion sounds as if it came from a palm already greased. In the matter of this franchise both the Alameda newspapers have acted with indecent hardihood. From the first they have suppressed the truth and misstated the facts in an effort to deceive their own readers and misrepresent the attitude and motives of the citizens of Oakland.

There is every appearance of an attempt to hold up the government with respect to the conservation of the waters of Lake Tahoe. A great canal capable of irrigating 50,000 acres has been constructed at enormous cost, and the government is now preparing to construct a dam where the Truckee emerges from Tahoe to regulate the flow out of the lake. The Floristan Paper Mill, a trust concern, sets up the plea that this is an infringement of its right to use the water for power purposes. Now the government does not propose to divert one drop of water above the mills, only to regulate the flow of the Truckee river. It would seem, therefore, that the paper trust has scented here an opportunity to bleed the government. It is not satisfied with squeezing newspaper publishers in a most remorseless manner, but desires to put the screws on a beneficent enterprise of the national government.

The Vallejo Chronicle says Oakland has Vallejo "lashed to the mast" in the matter of hotel accommodations. Then, we are sorry for Vallejo, for it must be in a sorry fix indeed.

We politely requested the Stockton Mail to quote a line from Thomas Jefferson favoring government ownership of public utilities, and the Mail responds by quoting a passage from St. Paul. We beg to remind our contemporary that St. Paul is as much a stranger to the Democracy as Colonel Tim Spellacy is to the political doctrines of Thomas Jefferson. Incidentally, the editor of the Mail evinces greater familiarity with the Bible than with the teachings of the founder of the Democratic party, which indicates that he is a much better Christian than a Democrat. He should expound the Epistle to the Corinthians to his political brethren that peace and better understanding may be promoted among the distracted followers of the sage of Monticello.

Ex-Minister Wu's Views

Wu Ting Fang, former Chinese minister to the United States, has lost nothing of his bland plausibility. With much unctious he deplores the Chinese boycott on American goods, and then goes on to expatiate on its formidable character. Further on he discusses the necessity for importing Chinese labor into Hawaii and the Philippines. Here we get at the kernel of the Chinese statesman's views. He thinks the opening of Hawaii and the Philippines to coolie laborers would stop the trade discriminations against American goods. This does not keep step with the contention that the boycott is the result of the treatment accorded Chinese merchants, students and travelers landing at American ports. Minister Wu wants our government to let down the exclusion bars to the extent of admitting coolies into Hawaii and the Philippines. So do a good many people in the United States who are wringing their hands in simulated sorrow over the Chinese boycott, which Wu Ting Fang is credited with prompting if not originating. In Wu's crafty statements one can discern the set purpose to nullify the exclusion law by indirection if not by direct action. Let Chinese coolies pour into Hawaii and the Philippines, and they cannot long be kept from coming to the continent to revive all the political and industrial troubles which kept California in a turmoil for nearly twenty years.

COLLEGE FARMING

(A Kansas newspaper is authority for the statement that some of the young men who are arriving at the harvest fields come in patent leather shoes, shirtwaists and pegtop trousers.)

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the college harvest hand,
He's working down in Kansas with a dress suit, understand,
And his patent leather dancing pumps and pegtop pants are grand;
The hands are marching on.

I have seen him in the college, with his bulging high, white brow;
I have heard him give the college cheer, "Sizz boom!" and likewise
"Wow!"
But he's got another job, you see, and he is working now;
The hands are marching on.

He has left his Greek and Latin for the harvest fields of toil,
And he'll stand out in the sunlight and he'll roast and fry and boil,
And his face will get streaked and striped with grimy Kansas soil;
The hands are marching on.

And Cholly carries with him in his suit-case, so they say,
A shirt with stiffened bosom and some socks both rich and gay,
And a lot of other togs and things to make a great array;
The hands are marching on.

And likely he has with him in his handsome dress suit case
Some fine complexion lotions for to use upon his face,
And doubtless on his nightrobes there are ruffles trimmed with lace;
The hands are marching on.

They fear the yellow freckle and the thick, plebeian tan,
And want a silk umbrella over every toiling man,
And by and by each one will want a cool electric fan;
The hands are marching on.

FOR THE NEW ARISTOCRACY

These touring automobilists do not have any occasion to show their insolence in this part of the State. No officer whose duty it is to see that the laws are enforced interferes in the slightest degree with the plans of persons who have money enough to sport automobiles, but all of them seem to think that ownership of an auto authorizes men not only to treat the statutes as a dead letter but also to treat other people who use the highways as trespassers on their aristocratic prerogatives. Farmers and others who still use horses in their business and pleasures are quite as much in the way of the pleasure hunting automobilists of the present as were the people of France in the way of the "ancient regime."

But it's of no use to protest. Nobody will do anything to check the desires of the new aristocracy.—Salinas Index.

NO HALF-SHOT SPORTSMAN.

W. Parker Lyon, automobilist, Mayor of Fresno, and mighty sportsman, is not so well known to the sporting writers of San Francisco as he is to those of Oakland and his home town. That is why the metropolitan papers announce without question that he killed recently a 160-pound buck. Parker has a wonderful imagination and, while we would not for a moment be understood as doubting the weight of that deer, yet, according to the doctrine of probabilities, it was a spike-buck. Who swears to the weight?—Nevada City Miner-Transcript.

CHIPS FROM OTHER BLOCKS.

It is obvious that the laws against reckless automobile driving must be made more effective. Mere fines are not sufficient in the case of the man to whom a fine is a joke. He must be made to suffer in his own person.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Now we may forget the existence of Port Arthur until the time when, in the process of evolution, the Korean feels the promptings of regeneration and proceeds to wipe the Jap off the face of the earth.—St. Paul Globe.

The price of peace is unofficially fixed at $1,000,000,000, and it's only external peace at that. What would the Czar give for peace and quiet in Russia?—Philadelphia Inquirer.

EXCELLENT SHOWING MADE BY WM. CORBIN IN THE ANNUAL STATEMENT OF THE CONTINENTAL BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

The Continental Building and Loan Association has just issued its annual statement, and considering the light of events of the past year, it makes a most remarkable showing for the stockholders.

Notwithstanding the fact that a gigantic battle for political purposes was made against Dr. Washington Dodge, the president of the Continental, and an almost unceasing hammering on the part of the doctor's political enemies at Wm. Corbin, the manager of the institution, attacking him in a most virile form, nevertheless Mr. Corbin stood coolly by, and brought victory and profit to the stockholders.

No doubt the Equitable Life Insurance scandal had a bearing on the case which would seem to have made Mr. Corbin's efforts somewhat difficult, but throughout the struggle he demonstrated an executive ability which has scarcely been equalled in the history of finance in California.

During his management of the company's affairs, many poor people who never in all probabilities saved a dollar, have been taught how to save, and the value of saving to those dependent upon them, and results which, after all, are the most eloquent witnesses, show that not a small percentage of the homes of the working classes of California, over 17,000 of them, costing upward of $20,000,000, have been built with Continental money through the agency of Mr. Corbin and his associates. During the past two years the subscribed capital of the Continental has increased nearly $2,000,000, with a corresponding increase both of assets and surplus.

The statement not only shows the financial condition of the company, but contains very flattering letters from stockholders and borrowers, showing the excellent treatment that they have received at the hands of the Continental, a list of those who are being assisted financially, and to what extent, and a partial list of those whose matured contracts have recently been paid. There are also instructive architectural plans for those intending to build homes, and some excellent photographs of homes built through the agency of the Continental.

But the most forceful part of the report is a treatise by Mr. Corbin, portraying in a most clear and logical manner how various men of moderate incomes contrive economic conditions which surround them, and at the same time teaches those who are able to save something, but are naturally improvident, how with a little forethought they can make their declining years comfortable.

On the whole the report makes a remarkable showing for the Continental which has become the largest financial institution of its kind in the West, and one of the largest in the entire world.

The report is issued in booklet form, a work of the printer's art, and well worth sending for and studying.

The stockholders and investors are to be congratulated on the showing that Mr. Corbin has made.

THE DAY MOON.

The little, loitering waves that sought the shore
Recked not of her; the listless leagues of sand
That zone the green girth of the moon-tide land

Bespied her not; the fisher at his oar,
The children romping round his wind-swept door,
The driftwood together, bent with toil and tanned

With dazzling days, innumerable, and
The ships far-faring o'er the sea's blue floor—
None saw that heavenly lamp hung high and free—

Pale sister to the pulsing sun—but me,
And I was minded of that life of thine,
That shines as softly and unheededly.

A Sweet, save for this watchful love of mine—
My Day Moon, fairest of all orbs that be!

TEN CAUSES FOR DIVORCE

FOR MEN.

- For a woman to ruin her husband's best story by interrupting him at the critical point to explain to the listeners that he is exaggerating things and they didn't really happen that way at all.
- For a wife to correct her husband's pronunciation in public.
- For a wife to demand to know of her husband what he did with the fifty cents she allowed him out of his last week's pay envelope.
- For a woman to tell her husband what a sacrifice she made in marrying him.
- Refusal to let a man smoke where he pleases.
- Make him eat what she thinks is good for his stomach instead of what he likes.
- Refusal to give him but one hook in a closet and one corner of a bureau drawer for his clothes.
- Bad housekeeping.
- Curl paper at breakfast.
- The nagging and curtain lecture habit.

FOR WOMEN.

- The husband wearing the appearance of a martyr whenever he takes his wife out.
- The husband immersing himself in the newspaper and sitting up like a dummy all the time he is at home.
- Making wife the butt of all his jokes when he wants to appear witty before company.
- Snapping around the kitchen and pantries to see if the potato parings are wasted and if there are cobwebs in the cellar.
- Bringing company home to dinner without giving his wife a chance to add an extra dish and to do up her hair a new way.
- Dictating to wife about how she shall dress.
- Selecting wife's hats.
- Mother's ples, telling wife how mother use to keep house on fifteen cents a week, etc.
- Warning all bachelors who come to the house against getting married.
- Knocking.

LEAVES HOME SMALL FEET TO WED A CHINESE NOT FOR HER

PHILADELPHIA, August 10.—A Sunday School romance culminated in a wedding yesterday, when Charles Gung, a Chinaman, employed in a store in Race street, was married to Miss Bessie Arnold, a pretty blonde, of 613 Eutaw street, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Magistrate Beaton in his office, on Broad street, above Vine.

Miss Arnold came to this city to meet her fiancée, because of parental objection. She was dressed in white as she stepped to Magistrate Beaton's desk. After the ceremony the pair boarded the 2 o'clock train for Baltimore to seek forgiveness from the bride's parents.

Gung was born in California, and went to Baltimore about three years ago, becoming a member of a Chinese mission Sunday School. He was assigned to Miss Arnold's class, and soon the two fell in love. After the big fire Gung came to this city.

While there he corresponded with Miss Arnold, while she sought the consent of her parents. Deciding this could not be had, Gung arranged for the girl to come to this city and have the ceremony performed here.

Gung encountered some difficulty in securing a marriage license, as he did not understand the meaning of an oath, but this was overcome with the assistance of Clerk Goebel and Registrar of Wills Klemmer.

SHE PLAYS IN BALL GAME; IS HURT

SHARON, Pa., August 10.—In the first game of baseball she ever played, Mrs. William Guidoo had two of her ribs fractured at the annual outing of the Primitive Methodist Church, at Willow Grove.

A game between two nines, made up of women, was advertised as one of the features of the day, and it drew a large crowd.

When Mrs. Guidoo stepped to the plate, the pitcher, Fannie Williams, delivered a swift inshoot, which struck the batter in the side, rendering her unconscious.

She was removed to her home, and her condition is reported to be serious.

COUPLE MAKE A STRANGE REQUEST

CROYDON, Pa., August 10.—When Dr. W. H. Heith, of Scranton, a veteran of the Mexican War, died February 7, he requested that his ashes be scattered upon the river. His wife died July 26 and left a similar request.

The daughter, a teacher in the Scranton High School, and Dr. Maude Boyer today met the Rev. Dr. Forrest E. Dager, rector of St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal Church, of Philadelphia, at the mouth of the Neshaunim creek.

The party rowed to the middle of the Delaware, just opposite Edgewater Park, and anchored the boat. The doctor placed the ashes of man and wife together upon a paper and, using a modified form of the burial service, turned the ashes—about three quarts in bulk—into the river.

The ceremony was witnessed by several boatloads of campers.

PHILADELPHIA, August 10.—Mrs. Wu Ting Fang, wife of the former Chinese Minister to this country, is enjoying the ability to walk easily, despite the fact that until she came to the United States her feet were tightly bound, according to the custom in China. This news is brought here by Dr. Elizabeth Reifensnyder, formerly of this city, who is now connected with a hospital at Shanghai. Dr. Reifensnyder is well acquainted with Minister Wu Ting Fang and Mrs. Wu, and has been greatly interested in the remarkable surgical operation which Mrs. Wu had performed upon her feet before she returned to her native land.

The operation appears to have been thoroughly successful, and Mrs. Wu's feet are restored to their normal state. It is believed that in time thousands of high-caste Chinese women will be applying to American hospitals to get their feet undone. The power of nature to restore is so great that the muscles and bones, released from artificial restraints, are soon assisted back to their right positions.

HIGH KICKING CHARGE IS FALSE

NEW YORK, August 10.—To prove she waddled when she walked and that her husband's charges as to her kicking abilities were base calumnies, Mrs. Paul Noe, who is suing for divorce, gave a few exhibition steps in court.

Blushing and pouting, Mrs. Noe tripped up and down before the jury-box.

"There, now, what did I tell you?" she exclaimed, triumphantly, at the conclusion of her performance. Evidently she was right, for immediately afterward the Judge awarded her temporary alimony.

Mrs. Noe is of middle age. Her husband is the owner of ten Ralnes law hotels in this city.

In his answer to his wife's complaint, Noe set forth that, while she is only four feet eleven inches tall, she could kick the chancellors of their home and that she once exhibited her prowess in the presence of visitors. She denied this.

MOURN FOR DOG, PET OF FAMILY

CINCINNATI, August 10.—Crawling from the front door of the store conducted by Carl Schwartz, in the West End, yesterday afternoon and evening, and business was suspended so that the proprietor and his family could pay fitting tribute to the memory of their pet poodle, whose body lay in state in a tiny casket within the house.

Two days ago the dog disappeared. Searchers were sent out, and a liberal reward was offered. This morning the poodle came back badly injured by a wagon and it soon died.

Schwartz ordered all customers from the store, pulled down the shades and tacked up the crape.

Last night the bereaved members of the household accompanied the body to a secluded spot in the country, and there buried it. A slab affectionately inscribed marks the grave.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY

LITTLE ONES ENTERTAINED

MRS. PARKE WILSON OPENS HER HOME TO LITTLE GUESTS.

Mrs. Parke Wilson entertained recently at a delightful children's party planned for two little ones, Peralta Wilson and Frances Wilson. The house was decorated with ferns and carnations and everything was provided to delight the little ones, bon bons, toys and musical wonders followed by an elaborate supper. Mrs. Wilson was assisted in entertaining the little guests by Mrs. Alfred Nicoletti and Miss Charlotte Washington.

The children who participated in this enjoyable affair were Frances Wilson, Peralta Wilson, Veronica Crowley, Ida Crowley, John Crowley, Carrie Hinch, Lillie Hinch, "Buck" Willis, "Boots" Wheeler, Raymond Wheeler, "Tots" Wheeler, Will Duffy, Wilhelmina and Joan Wilson.

FOR BRIDE-ELECT.

Miss Gertrude Allen was hostess Tuesday evening at an informal card party with Miss Edith Gaskill, the pretty fiancée of Roy McCabe, as guest of honor. The invitations were by telephone, and the guests were all close friends of the charming bride-to-be. After a game of five hundred the prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, Miss Lucretia Burnham, Mrs. Harry Farr, Dr. Percy Gaskill and Irving Lundborg.

Mrs. Wickham Havens entertained yesterday at a luncheon planned for Miss Gaskill. The table was effectively decorated with tiger lilies, and covers were laid for Miss Gaskill, Miss Gertrude Allen, Miss Bessie Palmer, Mrs. Irving Lundborg, Mrs. D. A. Proctor, Mrs. Edward Engle, Mrs. Harold Havens, Mrs. Montell Taylor and the hostess.

QUIET WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Partidge of this city and Thomas W. Hamby of San Jose was solemnized Wednesday evening, August 8, at the home of the bride's brother, Rev. Hobart officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamby left for the southern part of the State, where they will spend their honeymoon.

CLUB DINNER.

The dinner given Tuesday evening by the members of the Hollischickie Club, at the club rooms on Sutter street, was a delightful success. Mr. Sanborn, president of the club, was toastmaster and introduced the various speakers cleverly.

Among those who participated in the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Oliver Upham, Mrs. Linda Bryan, Miss Laura Sanborn, Miss Grace Sanborn, Will Sanborn, Miss Gertrude Van Wyck, Miss Lalla Wenzelburger and several others.

NEW HOMES.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Whiting are occupying their new home in Berkeley, which has just been completed. Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Winslow have returned from their wedding trip and have taken a picturesque house on Oakland Avenue.

AT DINNER.

Among the guests entertained Monday evening by Mrs. Butters at Villa Berringer were Mrs. Blair, Miss Jennie Blair, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. de la Tour, Miss Susie Nicols and Mrs. McCleskey.

PRETTY WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Cecilia McBrien and John Francis Lynch took place last evening in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. Father Dempsey officiating. The church was elaborately decorated in pink and white, and over 250 guests witnessed the interesting ceremony. During the marriage service Miss Mae Dolan, a friend of the bride, sang "Oh, Promise Me."

The bride was gowned in cream de sole over tulle, and her long veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried bride's roses. Miss Bessie Lynch, the maid of honor, wore pink chiffon with a white picture hat, and carried bridesmaid roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Charlotte and Miss Mary Jones, wore pink wreaths in their hair and carried picturesque baskets of carnations. Their gowns were white silk mull. P. Hanrahan attended the groom as best man, and the ushers included Dan Reynolds, Hugh Leonard, George Courtney and Eugene Fitzsimmons.

Following the ceremony at the church there was an informal reception at the bride's home, to which sixty relatives and intimate friends had been invited. The house was decorated with carnations, amaryllis and ferns, and the newly married couple received the congratulations of their friends standing under a pink and

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will spend their honeymoon at the Portland Fair and on their return will occupy their new home on Moss Avenue.

HOUSE PARTY.

Miss Irma Chase of Linda Vista entertained a party of young people from Saturday to Monday at the Braun cottage near the Joaquin Miller place. Which included Miss Chase, Miss Burnham, Miss Augusta Braun, Henry Chase, Herbert Brown and Paul Dinsmore.

FOR A TRIP.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Mehmman leave in a few days for a trip through Yellowstone Park, going later to Portland, where they will be joined by Miss Lou Curdts and Miss Helen Mehmman.

KELLY-GILPIN.

Three years ago Lee Gilpin, son of the late Z. T. Gilpin and Miss Mildred Kelly, daughter of Mrs. Laura E. Kelly, were quietly married at San Rafael. The young people were both under age, and their parents had the marriage annulled.

Last evening the ceremony was repeated with the consent of the older people, since the youthful bride and groom have now attained their majority. The marriage service was read by the Rev. Clifton Macon, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin will occupy a pretty home on Latimer street after their honeymoon.

WHIST TOURNAMENT.

There will be a whist tournament

WEDDING NEWS OF THE DAY

WOMAN SAYS MEN ARE COWARDS

PHILADELPHIA, August 10.—"Men are such cowards," said Mrs. Charles Gilpin, third, in describing today an encounter which she had with two burglars at the Overbrook home of William Ellis Scull, which the Gilpins are occupying.

Until her marriage two years ago to the star of the Mask and Wig Club, Mrs. Gilpin was Miss Frederica Berwind, daughter of Charles E. Berwind, the millionaire coal operator.

"I just wounded a man slightly," she said. "It didn't amount to much. My husband and John Moore (Moore is a University of Pennsylvania graduate, and an old chum of Charles Gilpin, 3d.), sat out on the lawn until after midnight. About half past one o'clock I heard some one moving about beneath my window and when I looked out I saw a tremendously big man and an unusually small one walk to the rear of our house."

"I first got the little pearl handled revolver that I had always carried when I was in Europe, and with which I once shot at a man who held me up when I was out riding alone one day in my automobile. Then I called my husband, and he called Mr. Moore."

"Neither of the men seemed anxious to go after burglars; but I was determined, so we went."

"As soon as we were in the nursery Mr. Moore slammed the door, then looked it, saying, with a triumphant air: 'We're safe for the time being, anyway.' Men are such cowards! 'We looked out of the window, and the burglars glanced up. Evidently they had heard us, for they began to run immediately. One of them had a dark lantern and the other had a jimmy. I fired one shot at them, and hit one of them, for the next morning we found blood on the grass, and the watchman at the tower said he had seen one man dragging another across the railroad tracks.'

HAS HUBBY'S ASHES IN A JAR

WILMINGTON, Del., August 10.—With the remains of her husband in a jar on her arm, Mrs. Harley Danney this afternoon went into the office of the Board of Health and asked for a burial permit.

She coolly stated that a grave was ready, and the burial was to take place at 4 o'clock.

Denney died in California last March, and his body was cremated. The ashes were placed in a jar, and when the widow returned to this city she brought them in her trunk.

This was contrary to law, as she had no permit to bring the body from California and no certificate attesting the cause of death. The board refused the permit.

Really, the black-and-white check is ubiquitous. You meet it at every step, in the guise of a long tight coat suit, a short loose jacket or a meek little

THINGS CONCERNING WOMEN

Always keep footwear on trees when not being worn and your shoes will be in good condition until the end.

If you do not want to spend $6 or $75 cents for shoes to fit each pair, the next best plan is to stuff the toes well with tissue paper, putting in enough to take out the wrinkles.

After taking off a pair of shoes air them for half an hour before putting on the trees and rub the dust out of the leather with a flannel rag or brush if the cloth does not thoroughly clean.

A good friction polish that contains enough oil to keep the leather soft should be put on every two or three days when the shoes are constantly in use.

Tan shoes require more polishing and cleaning than black ones and it is necessary to frequently wash them with soap and water to get off the stains that the friction polish does not remove.

Occasionally a little oil put on, vicid and calf helps to keep the leather elastic and soft and at the same time makes the shoes as near waterproof as is possible.

If your shoes have been wet through in a rainstorm put them on trees or fill them with tissue paper as soon as you get home. When they are dry rub them generously with an oil to soften the leather, then put on the friction polish and the shoes should look the same as they did before the wetting.

To clean spots and dirt from canvas and buckskin shoes use the prepared powders and fluids that can be purchased in any of the stores for from fourteen to twenty-five cents. Pipe clay put on dry with a stiff brush and then brushed out leaves the white canvas or duck as clean as when they were purchased.

Suede kid is cleaned with prepared powders or fluids and is easily done at home. The only way to remove stains and dirt from satin or silk footwear is with naphtha or gasoline and instead of cleaning just the soiled spot the entire shoe should be rubbed to keep the material from looking spotted when dry and ready for use.

One of the bridesmaids at the marriage of a Nelson (England) cotton manufacturer a few days ago was Miss Minnie Ogden, who is one year and two months old. The baby bridesmaid looked very pretty in blue.

A Cambridge (England) lady finds on careful computation that two quilts which she has just made contain about 2,834,199 stitches. In one garment there are 1,332 stitches in each of the 1,080 pieces, making a total, with border work, of 1,818,023.

Baroness Rosen, wife of the new Russian Ambassador, is a strikingly attractive-looking woman and her daughter, Elizabeth, sixteen years old, if she stays in this land long enough, is likely to fill the important place in Washington society that has so long been held by Countess Cassini.

Among royal ladies of the day who can recall their own grand entry as a bride into a capital city may be included Countess Lonyay, who was but a girl of sixteen when introduced to the Viennese as their crown princess. According to eye-witnesses, the youthful Stephanie of Belgium was crimson with excitement and maintained her self-possession with difficulty when facing the applauding crowds for the first time.

Mrs. Anna White designs all the wardrobes of the animal performers of the Barnum & Bailey circus. In the winter Mrs. White goes to the winter quarters of the circus and carefully fits patterns to the horses, camels and elephants that take part in the pageants and, returning to New York, puts the thirty odd seamstresses she employs to work on the trappings, taking the greatest care as to the fitting and sewing. For some thirty-three years she has carried on this odd business.

Henry Labouchere thus expresses his opinion of the fashions in dress. "The aim of dressmakers is to make money, and they find this easy, as they have to deal with silly people. Each year they alter the fashions and take care to do this in a way that the dresses of one year cannot be adapted to that of the next year. Women are the slaves of these intelligent harpies. They blindly accept the fashions ordained by them and seem to be entirely ignorant of the fact that what may suit one woman does not suit all. Dressmakers have very little taste. Even if they have, it is warped by their subordinating it to finance. Occasionally the fashion which they inaugurate is not absolutely ugly, but it is always overlooked in order that a large price may be charged for the costume."

A correspondent in the Far East has recently been impressed by the status of white women who marry orientals. "A sad lot," he says, in a letter just to hand, "awaits the white woman who has the misfortune of being beguiled into marrying a Japanese. Usually, when abroad, the student (and they are all students) receives plenty of additional pay and in is not much to be wondered at that, in closely settled countries, like Germany or England, a poor girl, who has no prospects of marrying at home, consents to marry the 'polished Japanese gentleman.' If he occupies a good position at home and has plenty of money, there seems to be no hardship involved, except, maybe, in nine cases out of ten, the antagonism of the Japanese parents, but woe to her if it be but a subaltern position when she accompanies him to Japan! There are cases where the poor woman simply turns crazy and little sympathy will she get from her surroundings."

The newest beauty fad will not long survive. It is too cheap, too simple and entails too much hard work. It is nothing but digging in the garden. Those who advocated it say that garden work—digging, planting, hoeing and raking—composes the nerves, erases wrinkles and brings back the brightness to the eyes and the color to the cheeks. Of course the dress in which the exercise is to be taken has been carefully considered. All manner of costumes are presented. One pretty enthusiast does her gardening in a gymnastic suit, a brilliant crimson jersey and a yachting cap.

People who recognize the importance of taking care of their health often quite forget that if we want to preserve them it is just as necessary to take care of our eyes. First of all take care of your general health. Poor health often leads indirectly to various eye troubles. Then remember that straining of the eyes is caused by a dazzling glare or a bad light. Glare and gloom are equally bad to work in. You need not ask which is the worse for the eyes—one is as bad as the other. The light should fall on book or work from behind us. The attitude while at work is of great importance. The head should, as far as possible, be kept erect. Stopping causes an increased flow of blood to the head and eyes—this is injurious to them.

Freckles may be a thing of beauty, but they are hardly a joy to the possessor. It is to the fair, delicate skin they show favor as a rule. Lemon juice applied at night will sometimes remove them. If they are very obstinate a little peroxide of hydrogen, one part to two of water, may be dabbed on now and then. An old-fashioned remedy, the virtue of which has been proved, is buttermilk. Freckles have been cured by a good, healthy coat of tan, but a face that freckles seldom gets sunburnt. For use on the skin in summer there is nothing superior to almond cream. It keeps both face and hands in perfect condition, particularly in places where the water is hard or contains iron. And for those who play golf, tennis or do any rowing it will prevent the formation of blisters and hangnails.

A healthy brain and an intellectual brain are not synonymous. One may be perfectly well and at the same time perfectly stupid; a fool may eat like a lower animal, while the giant philosopher barely keeps himself alive. While food is essential to thought, yet the force of food is not converted into thought-force. Good thinkers, like good athletes, are usually liberal feeders; but thousands who eat as much or more have very little intellect or muscle. The effect of a diet largely of fish seems to be sedative, calumative, like that of bromide of potassium, or phosphorus, or electricity—like these remedies, producing dullness rather than intellectuality, and inducing a disposition to sleep more than to think; not accelerating but slowing down the wheels of the mind, and therefore excellent and adapted for the nervous and overworked and overworked.

BARK OF DOG CAUSES HER DEATH

HASHROCK HEIGHTS, August 10.—Miss Lizzie Schultz, nineteen years of age, was frightened to death by a barking dog yesterday. Miss Schultz was on her way to the office of Dr. Conover, with Mrs. John T. Bulmer, a neighbor, whose baby was ill. They had got within half a block of the doctor's office when a dog owned by William Hess began to bark at the women as they passed.

"Oh, there is that dog," said Miss Schultz. "If often jumps up on me when I pass, and I am so frightened!" Although the dog did not come out of the yard the woman was so shocked for fear it was going to leap upon her, that she became ill on reaching the doctor's office. Dr. Conover gave her stimulants, and she was able to walk home. Soon afterward, however, she collapsed and became unconscious. She died in a few hours, the doctor says, of heart failure, caused by nervous shock.

NEWS OF THE DAY FROM THE SUBURBS

MINISTERS DAUGHTER LOOK NOT ON WINE HAYWARDS SAN LEANDRO LODGE TO BE A BRIDE WHEN IT'S RED MAY WIN ELECTS OFFICERS

Martha B. Rice to Wed Herbert Furlong at Berkeley.

BERKELEY, August 10.—The wedding of Miss Martha Bowen Rice and Herbert Furlong is to take place this evening at the home of the bride's mother, 2403 Fulton street. The young people are graduates of the University, he with the class of '03 and she with '04. Their marriage is the culmination of a romance begun in college days. The wedding is to be a quiet home affair and only the relatives and the most intimate friends of the two young people have been invited.

Miss Mabel Esther Rice, the younger sister of the bride-to-be, will be maid of honor, while Herbert Evans, of the Phi Sigma Delta, is to be groomsmen. Miss Isa Henderson and Miss Reba Galvin, sorority sisters of Miss Rice, will be bridesmaids.

Miss Rice is the daughter of the late Rev. H. H. Rice, a well-known Presbyterian minister of Oakland. In her senior year at college, she was president of the Associated Women Students and was one of the board of three editors that published the Blue and Gold of her class year. She is a member of the Alpha Beta Sigma Sorority, the Psi Chi Society and the English Club. For the past year she has been special English teacher in the Tulare High School.

Mr. Furlong is the son of the late Captain Matthew Furlong, a well-known mining and well known in maritime circles. His mother resides at 1837 Bancroft way. His brother, Eustace L. Furlong, is now connected with the geological department of the University of California.

HERBERT FURLONG.

Since leaving college, Furlong has won distinction for himself in geological exploration and has written a book, "Story of the Sand," which is now used as a text-book throughout the United States. While in college, he took two trips to the John Day fossil beds in Oregon, doing notable work under the direction of Professor J. C. Merriam of the State University. Furlong headed an expedition to Crater Lake in Shasta county and secured some remarkable specimens of reptiles. He is now secretary of the Pacific Commercial Museum. Furlong belongs to the Phi Sigma Delta fraternity.

After the honeymoon trip, the young couple will live in a pretty home at Belmont.

ROBERT BELL TAPPAN.

Alameda Justice Hands Out a Roast to Those Who Drink and are Drunk.

ALAMEDA, August 10.—City Justice Robert Bell Tappan, sworn to mete out justice to offenders, performs his duty, but while obliged to send W. F. Burns to the county jail for ninety days because the defendant, addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, created a harrowing scene while drunk at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. H. De Nise of Santa Clara avenue, who is believed to be near death, he took occasion to inveigh against the social system which permits and encourages the sale of intoxicants, the society which goes into partnership with liquor dealers, and from its "ill-gotten gains" builds jails in which to incarcerate its unfortunate "customers." The judge, before passing sentence, delivered a sermon for the benefit of all who look long upon the wine while it is red, in which he gave utterance to his cynical views in characteristic fashion, in part as follows:

"You are an habitual drunkard, as has been demonstrated by you before my eyes during the past twenty years or more. This appetite question has been a source of annoyance from the time of Noah down to this day, and it is getting worse all the time. As soon as Noah got time after the great waters were assuaged he planted a vineyard, and as soon as he gathered the harvest he made wine, drank it, and became drunk. He went into his tent and while in a maudlin state regretted all his clothing, and there he was discovered."

"Now, how do you suppose Noah felt the next morning? He must have felt humiliated greatly. Would it not have been better if that miserable crop of grapes had been non-productive wine grapes? As this is the first act of drunkenness recorded can we excuse our acts of inebriety because Noah got drunk?"

"The people of appetites today, instead of getting moderate, are more than avaricious, and this in the face of all the religious teachings. If a committee of liquor had managed the first act of Noah perhaps we would never have been cursed with the question today."

"The liquor question is not properly regulated anywhere, to the best of my knowledge. We encourage the manufacture of liquor, we go into partnership with the seller, and build with our ill-gotten gains, we cater to our customers in after making them drunk; we hire catchers to gather up our customers after we have filled them up; and justice to the people is the regulation of their manufacture of liquor has managed the first act of Noah perhaps we would never have been cursed with the question today."

"Within the past ten days I have seen one citizen come out of a saloon so drunk that staggering would not indicate his manner of locomotion. I have a solution which will decrease the amount of intoxication, but the people are not ready to accept it."

"I say that the habits of man are getting worse every day—we people today are not as good as those of 1776."

"Liquor I believe to be the cause of nine-tenths of our crimes. Yet I cannot excuse your conduct," added the court in addressing Burns. "I have given you all prescriptions but one known for your disease, and with will power—had you any—you should have at least partially recovered. You have never attempted to aid yourself in recovering, and I have known many times, since you were out on probation, that you have been on beastly spree, making the lives of your dear, good wife, and your bright young son, humiliated, causing the heart-strings of your good mother in her last days to be almost torn asunder."

"Your mother is now about ready to answer the last call; she is about to close a long, useful and honorable life. You left your home and moved, bag and baggage, into her house, so as to be near her, and I suppose comfort her in her last moments."

"This would have been a good deed of an only, loving child, but what did you do there the day of your arrest? To put it mildly you broke your word through the night. Her old husband went to the deathbed of your mother in a beastly state of intoxication, and raised such a rough house that your mother was not expected to live through the night. Her old husband, himself almost ready to answer the last call, was prostrated, and so was your wife."

"What good are you to either this community or to yourself? I will now prescribe the only remedy left for your disease. I order that you be imprisoned in the county jail for the period of ninety days."

COSTUME BALL.

ALAMEDA, August 10.—The pupils of the Alameda High School will repeat the costume ball which proved to be such a success during last term. The affair will take place on Saturday evening, September 16th. The proceeds are to be devoted to the fund maintained for athletics. Russell Baker and Edmund Brush will have charge of the financial end of the entertainment, and they expect to realize a tidy sum.

On last Monday afternoon the first football practice of the season took place on the school campus. There was a good "turn out" of football material, and the managers of the team are confident that this year's players will prove to be a successful aggregation.

E. W. ANDERSON ILL.

ALAMEDA, August 10.—E. W. Anderson, the well-known clerk at the Alameda postoffice is ill at the home of his brother, at Post and Madison streets, with an attack of appendicitis. It is not known at present whether an operation will be a necessity in his case.

Theodore Jr. today resumed teaching the Sunday school class he had last summer, having a class of 20 boys—Sylvan Bay cor. New York Times.

University Farm Site To Be Chosen Today.

BERKELEY, August 10.—The commission appointed to select a site for the University farm, met this afternoon in the Hopkins Institute of Art. Announcement was made at the University today that the members of the commission would gather in San Francisco this afternoon and decide between the various offers of land for a University farm site.

The Legislature appropriated $150,000 for this project, and appointed Governor Pardee, President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Elwood Cooper and Professor E. J. Wickson as a commission to determine the location of the farm. After the commission had visited sections of Alameda county and Contra Costa county, examining proposed sites, President Wheeler was called East, and the farm matter was left in abeyance.

With the return of President Wheeler, and the presence on the coast of Professor Liberty Hyde Bailey, director of the agricultural college work at Cornell University, the University farm project has been brought to the front, and will now be given definite settlement. Professor Bailey has been asked to give the commission the benefit of his experience in such matters. It being the belief of President Wheeler that so able a man could help to guide the commission aright in the beginning of a work that is new in California, but familiar to Mr. Bailey.

The question that has disturbed the commission hitherto has been that of whether the farm should be adjacent to the University, or in the interior of the State. The people of Hayward, in Alameda county have made tempting offers to the commission, and offers have also come from communities in Contra Costa county that desired the farm to be located near them. Yolo county has been mentioned as a strong competitor for the prize, and other sections of the State have been mentioned.

Professor Bailey has stated his belief that a University farm should be regarded as a work shop, and not a model farm, and that the best results may be expected when students can step from the farm to the laboratories in connection with the agricultural college on the campus. If the commission is guided by this suggestion, it is supposed that the Haywards people will have the best hope of having their offered site selected by the commission.

WORK ON NEW BANK

Fine Structure for West Berkeley.

BERKELEY, August 10.—Work was begun today on the foundations for the new West Berkeley Bank Building, on the northwest corner of University and San Pablo avenues.

The new bank building will be one of Berkeley's finest structures. It will cost in the neighborhood of $20,000 and will be two stories high with a sandstone front. The entire main floor will be devoted to the bank, while the upper floor will be arranged for offices. The building will have every modern improvement and will probably be completed early in December.

The progress of the bank building will be watched with great interest by residents of West Berkeley, as it will mark a new era in the affairs of that end of town.

JAIL IS REMOVED

Structure Has New Location—Plan of Marshal.

BERKELEY, August 10.—This morning the Berkeley Jail was moved to the Town Hall site, where it will remain temporarily. Trustee Olson and Marshal Vollmer, after discussing the matter, decided to place the jail there until further arrangements can be made by the Trustees for the handling of prisoners. The Marshal is in favor of installing a steel lattice cage in the Town Hall, and will give facts and figures on the proposition at the next meeting of the Trustees.

As the residents in the vicinity of the High School object to the jail's presence in that neighborhood, a protest against its present location will probably be taken before the board.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promptly, like W. C. Barber of Sandy, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs, but after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At Osgood's, drug stores, 12th and Washington and 7th and Broadway, 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free."

San Leandro Lodge Elects Officers

JOHN VOGT, INSTALLED LAST NIGHT AS CHIEF RANGER OF SAN LEANDRO COURT OF FORESTERS. THIS IS HIS SECOND TERM

John Vogt is Installed as Chief Ranger of Foresters of Interior Town.

SAN LEANDRO, August 10.—Budd Eber, the newly appointed district deputy grand chief ranger, installed the officers last night for Court San Leandro No. 74 of the Foresters of America. John Vogt, the chief ranger, made a speech after taking the oath of office. He has served almost all of last term, because of the absence of the man who held the office.

Games and a literary program entertained the members of the lodge at the conclusion of the installation exercises. Refreshments were served and speeches made by several of the Foresters.

The committee which prepared for the entertainment was composed of the following: B. Fred Eber, Henry Abernethy and Thomas Johnson.

Following are the names of the officers installed: John Vogt, chief ranger; George Tuttle, sub-chief ranger; B. E. Aber, recording secretary; Henry Abernethy, financial secretary; Robert Morgan, treasurer; W. Burnett, senior woodward; and C. A. Smiley, junior woodward.

The members of the court are hard at work on the big float which is to represent them in the Native Sons' parade this evening. It will be one of the most gorgeous of them all. In charge of fitting it up are Budd Eber, Robert Morgan, Thomas Johnson, George Tuttle and Henry Abernethy.

The Foresters themselves will march on foot through the streets in the procession.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Edgar L. McWorthy, the rural mail carrier for this district, entertained the other members of the Rural Mail Carriers' Association at his home on Estrella avenue Tuesday evening. Only routine business was transacted.

Miss Helen Cary of San Francisco is the guest of her sister here, Miss Ida Cary.

BIRTHDAY OF LODGE REBEKAHS TO DANCE

Druids of Elmhurst Celebrate Anniversary. Fruitvale Lodge to Entertain at Elmhurst.

ELMHURST, August 10.—The members of the Ancient Order of Druids celebrated the third anniversary of the founding of the local lodge last night. The ladies of Circle No. 25, of Druidesses were present and helped to make the pleasant hours pass swiftly. Several grand officers from San Francisco and elsewhere also attended the gathering and spoke on the order.

The chief feature of the evening was a banquet served in the smaller room at Red Men's Hall. The Druids are famous for their love of good things to eat, and their spread was an excellent one. It was followed by after-dinner speeches. It was announced that Coroner Meiermann could not be present as anticipated, as he had left for the East yesterday morning.

Dancing and a short program of music followed the other pleasures. Several members who had been initiated as a part of the celebration exercises recovered from the strenuous experience and enjoyed themselves heartily.

Charles Giovannini founded the lodge here. He was present last night, and told stories of the doings in the early days of its history.

Only a few months ago the women's branch was formed. This makes the organization one of the strongest in the town, as there are many members in each body.

Among the most interesting speakers last night were Mrs. Olga Heiden, the past arch Druidess and Mrs. A. Thornhill, the grand secretary of the women's department of the grand lodge.

BUSINESS MEETING.

Preparations were begun in earnest for the proposed social at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church this afternoon. Mrs. H. B. Arlett, Mrs. A. Brown and Mrs. C. S. Alvord are on the committee to prepare for the entertainment, which is to be one of the most pleasant affairs held here for some time. The date is yet to be settled.

This is the regular business meeting of the society. New work was started and everything put in readiness for much new work this fall.

Miss Edwards, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. G. Van Arsdale for the last few days left yesterday afternoon for Oakland. There are several more guests at Mrs. Van Arsdale's home still.

FRUITVALE, August 10.—Preparations are going rapidly forward for the dance and entertainment to be given this month by the Rebekahs at Elmhurst. The affair will be held August 26 in Red Men's Hall, which the ladies of the lodge will decorate with green vines and wild flowers. Sheaves of grain from the harvest fields will be the feature of the decorative scheme. This work will be a special feature of the arrangements and is in the hands of the following committee: Mrs. A. Jobins, Mrs. G. Burkel, Mrs. E. Orton, and Mr. Burkel. The guests of the lodge will be served with light refreshments during the evening.

NATIVES AT DANCE

Haywards Girls Entertain Many Guests.

HAYWARDS, August 10.—The Native Daughters of Haywards Parlor were entertained last evening by the members of the Native Sons' Lodge here. The affair took place at the N. S. G. W. Hall, which the hosts had decorated prettily in honor of the event.

A delightful supper was served to the guests. Following came many interesting and humorous speeches by the leaders in both organizations.

A short program of music and literary numbers was a feature of the evening. Games and dancing were enjoyed.

Credit for the success of the affair is due to the faithful work of the committee, which contains the following members: Jacob Harder (chairman), William Zambresky, Charles Pimental and Fred Rayner.

FRESHMEN ARE TAKEN BY THE HAND

New Students Find Y. M. C. A. Workers Prepared to Look Out for Their Interests.

BERKELEY, August 10.—Matriculation examinations at the University of California do not begin until Friday, August 11, but already the ambitious freshmen are appearing upon the campus. According to the reports from Stiles Hall, they seem to be arriving earlier than usual. The two associations, the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association, are keeping open house for the new comers, aiding them in finding boarding places and securing employment for those who must work their way through college.

Beginning with Monday night of next week a Jolly Up will be held every evening for the men. Here the new students will be taught the college songs and yells, and will make their first acquaintance with college men.

The workers of the Y. M. C. A. will gather for their annual "Camp Conference" on next Friday at noon. This novel outing is a counterpart to the one held last year, the first of its kind in the country. The young men will tramp in the afternoon, and then around the camp-fire in the evening.

and in the morning, they will discuss the problems of Association work, especially the question of how best to take care of the freshman. The line of march for the coming conference will begin at Mill Valley, in Marin county. After climbing Mt. Tamalpais the men move on to Rock Spring, where they will camp for the night. On Saturday afternoon they will reach Bolinas bay, where good swimming is assured. Then they will find a suitable location for a camp over Sunday, and on Monday afternoon will return by way of the stage route to West Point House in Mill Valley. The workers will start from Stiles Hall at 2:45 p. m., taking the Key Route for the city. Each man will carry his own blankets and provisions.

The men who have charge of the various sessions of the Conference are: A. W. Bartlett, Bible study; C. W. Bartlett, membership; Holmes Beckwith, missionary; H. M. Clifford, social; F. M. Cassidy, finance; E. B. Babcock, meetings; W. Clyde Smith, W. J. Musgrove, P. E. Collier, and E. K. Strong, special affairs. It is expected that all his clothing, and there he was discovered."

EYESORE WILL GO

Shacks to be Replaced by Residences.

BERKELEY, August 10.—The sheds and shanties at Alston way and Dana street, opposite Stiles' Hall, which have long been an eyesore to Berkeley, are to be removed. Daniel Fairbanks of 2420 Ellsworth street has purchased the John Hart property, upon which the old buildings stand, and will make extensive improvements.

The property has been called the key to the University, the entire campus being in view from it, and the various roads through the grounds making a start there.

The property is about 280x230 feet and its purchase price was $25,000. Mr. Fairbanks has designed a unique plan for the improvement of his property. From

MOTHER'S FRIEND

HOW TO BUILD BLIND SHOP

DIRECTORS ASK ATTORNEY-GENERAL TO INTERPRET
STATE LAW.

At the meeting of the directors of the Industrial Home for the Blind Monday night, a rough plan was presented for the new work shops for the home which is soon to be erected out of the appropriation of $250,000 for that purpose, which was made at the last session of the Legislature.

LAW REQUIREMENTS.
No action was taken, however, in finally deciding as to the interior arrangements of the building. The directors and Superintendent Saunders, of course, know what would most accommodate the operations of the institution but do not desire to act until after they have been thoroughly informed as to what are the requirements of the laws in the matter of the erection of public buildings.

Since the State Board of Charities and Corrections was organized two years ago plans of proposed public structures for punitive, corrective or eleemosynary purposes must be submitted to that organization for approval, amendment or rejection as the case may be.

CONSULT ATTORNEY GENERAL.
Aside from this, there are other requirements of the law which must be complied with.

For the purpose of getting light on the subject, therefore, the directors appointed a committee comprising Messrs. Irish, Randolph and Scott to confer with Attorney General Webb, as a consequence it is expected that soon after the next meeting of the Board, one month hence, work on the proposed structure will be undertaken.

ON OLD SITE.
It was definitely decided last night that the new workshop be erected on the site of the old one on Thirty-sixth street, a little to the south and west of the main building. The present shop, which at best is in but a shaky condition, will be moved to a vacant space west of the administration building and will there be utilized as a storehouse.

DETECTIVE IN A BAD ROLE

HE REPRESENTED HIMSELF AS A COLLECTOR OF WATER COMPANY.

F. C. Coleman, a private detective was found guilty of disturbing the peace of Mrs. Marie Knauer by Police Judge Samuel yesterday.

Coleman, according to the testimony, represented himself as a collector of the water company and visited Mrs. Knauer's home in East Oakland and attempted to collect a bill for water. He was arrested by Mrs. Knauer who conducted him in a manner that disturbed her peace.

Mrs. Knauer says the real cause of the trouble is the fact that she was left a fortune of $75,000 by her husband, and that relatives have taken undue pains to attempt to secure possession of it.

Coleman will be sentenced tomorrow.

HIT THE LADY IN THE EYE

MRS. WOOD WOULD NOT LET C. C. HARRIS MAKE LOVE TO HER.

C. C. Harris was found guilty of battery yesterday by Police Judge Samuel upon Mrs. E. Wood. Harris alleges that Mrs. Wood struck him with a hatchet, but the testimony proves that he hit her in the eye. Mrs. Wood says the cause of the trouble was that she had spurned the advances of Harris who is a married man.

Sentence will be passed tomorrow.

ARCTIC EXPLORERS RESCUED

All But One Have Survived The Polar Expedition.

HONNINGSVAGA, Norway, August 10.—The Arctic steamer Terra Nova, which went to the relief of the Peary-Ziegler polar expedition, has rescued Anthony Fiala and all the others connected with the expedition with the exception of one Norwegian seaman, who died from natural causes.

The ship America, which took out serious privations. The attempt was made in the winter of 1903-4 and lost with a large part of her coal and provisions.

The thirty-seven members of the expedition who returned to safety are all in good health, despite their privations and prolonged experiences and imprisonment in the Arctic, the expedition having been severed from all communication with the outside world since July, 1903.

Anthony Fiala, of Brooklyn, N. Y., the leader of the expedition, in a brief statement, says:

"The rescue was most timely. By my order the American wintered in Nepliz Bay. Early in the winter of 1903-4 the ship was crushed in the ice and became a total loss, together with big quantities of coal provisions.

"Stores left at Franz Josef Land by several relief parties saved us very serious privations. Three attempts to reach a high altitude failed. The scientific work, however, as planned, was successfully carried out by W. J. Peters of the United States Geological Survey.

"Our rescue was due to the splendid efforts of Wm. S. Champ, secretary of the late Wm. Ziegler, commanding the relief expedition, who owing to the terrible weather, failed to reach us last year; and to the untiring zeal of Captain Kjetilsten and his Norwegian officers and crew, who for six weeks persistently forced their way through solid floes of ice and finally reached us.

"Abundance of stores had been left on the Franz Josef archipelago by the expedition commanded by the Duke of Abruzzi and the Andre relief expedition, so that we did not suffer serious difficulties on that score."

NEW YORK, August 10.—A cablegram was delivered at the office of the Associated Press, confirming the Associated Press dispatch from Honningsvaga, and stating that the attempts northward of the present expedition were made without success. The scientific work, however, was successfully carried out.

SESSIONS' CASE
BEING ARGUED

SAN FRANCISCO, August 10.—Attorney T. C. Van Ness made his opening statement to the jury yesterday in the United States Circuit Court in the suit of Charles A. Sessions against the Southern Pacific Company. Van Ness declared he would prove that Sessions, who was killed in the wreck at Byron in December, 1902, was not a legitimate passenger on the train, having been passed by a conductor.

Attorney Van Ness also stated that the accident was due to an error being passed by a conductor, on the Owl train and not on the Stockton train, and that all rules and regulations for the safety of passengers had been observed on the ill-fated Stockton train, and that the railroad was not blameable for the wreck.

MAY SUCCEED KITCHENER.

It is probable that should Lord Kitchener resign his position as commander-in-chief of the British forces in India he will be succeeded by Lieutenant-General Sir William Nicholson. The latter has seen a good deal of actual service, including campaigns in Afghanistan, Egypt, Burma and South Africa. He was British attaché with the Japanese army during the early part of the Russo-Japanese war.

NEW YORK, August 10.—The monthly crop report of the Department of Agriculture gives the condition of crops as follows: Spring wheat 90.5, barley 90.5, spring rye 92.5, flax 95.7.

WILLIAM SCORNE A CHECK.

A New York paper recently asked Emperor William of Germany to contribute an article on the war of the East, the article to be signed, A check for $5000 was enclosed with the request. By return mail came a decidedly curt note to the effect that the emperor had no desire to write for such a publication on any subject, and especially on the Russo-Japanese war. Of course the check was returned.

DIFFIDENCE OF J. M. BARRIE.

J. M. Barrie is as shy as a school girl, says a writer. Let a pretty girl look steadily at Barrie for five minutes, and if she can catch his eye, he will exhibit about the same symptoms of distress as a man who has swallowed a fishbone.

BIG STREET FAIR OPENS TODAY

CELEBRATION OF NATIVE SONS
COMMENCES AT SAN LEANDRO.

SAN LEANDRO, August 10.—Today's the day of the opening of the great street fair and circus of the Native Sons here. The big parade is to start at 8 o'clock this evening, and will be the commencement of the three days' jollification.

Nearly every Native Son and Daughter in the county will be in the line as well as large numbers of members of other fraternal orders.

Floats, banners and many other decorations will be interspersed in the line of walkers. Several bands have been secured.

Admission will be charged to the grounds this evening and tomorrow, but on Saturday it will be free. That is to be Children's Day, and all the little ones are invited to make themselves at home there. The boys' band from the Masonic Home will be in attendance. Special features and acts will be at the circus for the children.

J. I. Kotter of Oakland will be in charge of the different side shows, or concessions. Of these there is a great number, and all of them are interesting.

The following committees deserve great credit for the thoroughness and care with which the arrangements have been made:

Arrangements—W. W. Shuhaw, Dr. J. P. Torrey, W. G. Muntz, O. Z. Best, R. J. Mendonca, George J. Clark.

Finance—William Kelly, W. J. Gannon, A. J. Lloyd, L. Godchaux.

Reception—Dr. J. P. Torrey, I. D. Ury, O. Z. Best, W. G. Muntz, T. Tierney, A. J. Lloyd.

Accommodations—Lucien Godchaux, J. Donovan, S. Whitcomb.

Transportation—J. Soares, G. J. Clark, W. W. Shuhaw, W. G. Muntz.

Concessions—A. Knox, R. Geisenhofer, William Kelly, I. B. Ury, Lucien Godchaux.

MAN KILLED AT POINT RICHMOND

POINT RICHMOND, August 10.—John Dunn, foreman on Healy & Tibbitts, pilerdriver, operating at the Standard Oil Company's wharf, was instantly killed yesterday morning by the accidental dropping of the hammer on his head. Dunn was making some repairs at the bottom of the pilerdriver and was standing with his head between the framework in which the hammer rises and falls. Unaccountably the heavy iron casting broke from its fastenings and dropped, striking Dunn before he could be warned of the peril.

The accident occurred shortly after 8 o'clock. Physicians were called but they found that death was instantaneous.

Dunn was 25 years old, unmarried, a resident of San Francisco. He was a member of Piledrivers' Union No. 22 of San Francisco, and had been in the employ of Healy & Tibbitts for eight years. Coroner Curry took charge of the body.

SAVED THE LIFE OF AN ITALIAN

CROCKETT, August 10.—Risking his own life to save that of another, Gordon G. Rowe, a bookkeeper employed by the Jackson Furniture Company, of Oakland, plunged into the bay yesterday to rescue Philip Montecanza, an Italian, who had been seized with cramps while in deep water. He succeeded in bringing the man ashore after a hard struggle.

WILLIAM SCORNE A CHECK.

A New York paper recently asked Emperor William of Germany to contribute an article on the war of the East, the article to be signed, A check for $5000 was enclosed with the request. By return mail came a decidedly curt note to the effect that the emperor had no desire to write for such a publication on any subject, and especially on the Russo-Japanese war. Of course the check was returned.

DIFFIDENCE OF J. M. BARRIE.

J. M. Barrie is as shy as a school girl, says a writer. Let a pretty girl look steadily at Barrie for five minutes, and if she can catch his eye, he will exhibit about the same symptoms of distress as a man who has swallowed a fishbone.

ROOF OF TUNNEL CAVES

Three Brave Workmen
Stay In Hole and Save Property.

NEW YORK, August 10.—Under pressure of the weight of the North river, the roof of the northerly tube of the twin tunnels being bored from Fifth street, Jersey City, to Morton street, Manhattan, partly gave way yesterday and twenty-two men at work behind the boring shield narrowly escaped drowning.

One man lost his life, having been crushed by the shield, stunned and drowned. Nineteen of the workmen took flight when the water began to trickle down upon them and fled toward the gate of the air lock. Three retained their presence of mind and plugged up the break in the roof. When they finished their work they were all deep in the water.

Work on the southern tube of the tunnel was finished last fall. The northern bore had been carried to within 200 yards of the New York shore when yesterday's leak began. The three men who remained plugged the hole with bags filled with sawdust, which are always kept near the shield for that purpose. The pressure of compressed air was increased and it held the bags of sawdust against the opening until planks and timbers could be placed in position.

WOMAN CAUSES
HIS ARREST

SAN FRANCISCO, August 10.—Mrs. Annie Henwood, 847 Oak street, a stockholder in the Pacific Coast Savings Society, now in liquidation, obtained a warrant from Police Judge Fitz yesterday for the arrest of Wendell Easton, real estate agent, on a charge of violating section 560 of the Penal Code. The section reads:

"Every director of any stock corporation who concurs in any vote or act of the directors of such corporation, or any of them by which it is intended to receive from any other stock corporation in exchange for the shares, notes, bonds or other evidences of debt issued by such other corporation or notes, bonds or other evidences of debt issued by such other corporation is guilty of a misdemeanor."

It is alleged in the complaint that Easton, while a director of the savings society and also a director of the Guaranty Trust Company, concurred in a resolution passed by the directors of the savings society on September 6, 1904, authorizing the president and secretary to execute, assign and deliver such securities as were then owned by the society to the Guaranty Trust Company, such securities having been transferred to 200 shares of the capital stock and certain moneys and guarantees of the trust company as voted by its directors and exchanged with the savings society.

Easton was arrested by Policeman Engel, and, after being booked at the City Prison, was released on $20 cash bail. He says the transaction between the savings society and the trust company was perfectly legitimate and was done in the regular order of business.

Mrs. Henwood's attorney had been endeavoring to get him to pay her the value of her shares for two or three months, under threat of arrest, and this was the result. He had consulted his attorney when the first demand was made upon him and was told that he had nothing to fear from a prosecution.

SUBSIDIZE SUGAR
BEET PRODUCERS

NEW YORK, August 10.—A bill was passed by the Chilean Congress yesterday, according to a Herald dispatch from Valparaiso, subsidizing sugar beet producers.

A dollar down and a dollar a week

Think of it. All you have to do is, to bring in a dollar and pick out your stove. We take all the risks. We put it up, take the old stove down, guarantee the new stove for two years and only ask one dollar down. That is sufficient proof of what we think of the Early Breakfast Range isn't it?

Here are the terms:

All you have to do is to come in and pick out the style and size you wish and pay us a dollar. We will then immediately deliver the range to your house, set it up and if you wish will at the same time take back your old range, allowing you whatever it is worth.

PRICES

14-inch Oven, Early Meal $22.50
16-inch Oven, Early Meal $27.50

16-inch Oven, Early Breakfast $32.50
18-inch Oven, Early Breakfast $35.00

The above prices on the EARLY BREAKFAST RANGE do not include the high-shelf back shown in picture which is extra.

THE FAMOUS
Early Breakfast Range

THE ACME OF PERFECTION

See Picture Above---A Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week

The greatest range in the country, absolutely perfect and satisfactory to the smallest detail. Ask us to explain its many advantages. Ask about the "full sheet flue system," the "indestructible damper," the "lift out grate," the "oven toasting rack," and the "reversible pipe collar."

The Early Breakfast Range, by its small fire box, gives more heat from less fuel than any other range on the market. Every style is beautifully finished, but not so elaborate that they cannot be kept clean easily. These ranges are made of Pennsylvania Iron with heavily nicked rims, plate knobs, etc. Burn either wood and coal and very economical. Guaranteed for two years.

Remember—We take your old stove back and allow you for all that it is worth

CAMINO REAL ASSOCIATION IS DOING A DEAL OF GOOD WORK.

One of the important organization matters before the people of the State of California, from Siskiyou to the San Diego line, is that of the Camino Real Association of California.

It is generally misunderstood by the people of the State, through articles that have been written and published by people not in touch with the association work, to be purely a sentimental measure, therefore wholly senseless and useless. In reality the association is based upon business methods, with commercial principles, as a foundation rounded out by the sentiment that made early California and gave it much of all that it possesses that is historical and interesting.

The sections of the State Association have been organized under the auspices of commercial bodies, such as Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce, and in all instances the policy is for better road building, better planning, for the system of roads that traverse the State, better adornment of public highways, better civic development of the cities, towns and villages all on utilitarian lines, managed and directed by the business men of the State, who from a commercial standpoint believe in and work for a better California.

THE OFFICERS.

The State Association consists of an executive committee of eighteen members and officers as follows:

President, A. P. Fleming; vice-presidents, Walter R. Bacon, Joseph R. Knowland, Mm. Caroline M. Severance, David Starr Jordan, Elmer Joseph Johnson, Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Mrs. John P. Swift, Right Rev. Archbishop George Montgomery; treasurer, Oscar C. Mueller.
